1. Introduction

The trustees present their annual report for Wordlife Church for the year ended 31 December 2025. The report has been prepared to provide a clear summary of the charity's purpose, activities, governance and financial position during the reporting period.

2. Charitable purposes

The charity's purposes are to advance the Christian faith and to undertake activities consistent with its governing document for the benefit of the church community and the wider public.

3. Activities and public benefit

During 2025, Wordlife Church continued its charitable and Christian ministry, providing a place for worship, prayer, teaching and fellowship. The trustees seek to make the church's activities available for the benefit of the congregation and the wider community, in accordance with the charity's purposes.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when reviewing the charity's aims and activities. The trustees consider that the charity's activities are intended to further its charitable purposes and provide public benefit. All trustees are volunteers and work for free

4. Achievements and performance

The church maintained its ministry and charitable objectives during the year and continued to provide opportunities for worship, prayer, biblical teaching, pastoral support and fellowship. The trustees remained focused on ensuring that the charity's activities were conducted responsibly and in accordance with its charitable purposes.

5. Financial review

The trustees have reviewed the charity's financial position for the reporting period. The account information supplied for inclusion with this report shows a balance of £0.00 and an available balance of NIL at the time shown on the statement.

Reserves policy: the trustees aim to manage the charity's resources prudently and to retain sufficient funds to meet known and reasonably foreseeable commitments. At the date represented by the attached account evidence, the available balance was NIL.

6. Structure, governance and management

Wordlife Church is a registered charity in England and Wales. The charity is governed by its governing document, which should be retained with the charity's records and used by the trustees when making governance and financial decisions.

The trustees responsible for the charity during the reporting period and/or at the date of approval of this report are:

- Raymond Williams
- George Asante-Yeboah
- Benedict Amponsah

The trustees are responsible collectively for the governance of the charity, safeguarding its assets, ensuring proper financial records are maintained and ensuring that the charity operates within its charitable purposes.

7. Risk management and safeguarding

The trustees recognise the importance of safeguarding children, young people and vulnerable adults, as well as protecting the charity's funds, reputation and records. The trustees seek to maintain appropriate safeguarding, financial control and operational procedures and to review these as necessary.

8. Future plans

The trustees intend to continue developing Wordlife Church's worship, teaching, prayer, fellowship and community-focused activities in furtherance of its charitable purposes. The trustees will continue to monitor the charity's finances and governance arrangements and seek to ensure that resources are used responsibly for charitable purposes.

9. Declaration and approval

The trustees approve this annual report and confirm that, to the best of their knowledge and belief, the information presented is a fair summary of the charity's activities and position for the reporting period.
