Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Continuation of services where we meet to worship, take communion, and listen to teaching to grow and encourage people in their faith.

Jenny Collins has completed the workbook to accompany the book she published last year; both are available on Amazon and in the Good News Bookshop in Loughborough. We are now running regular courses for people to study the book and workbook in groups. Our first course was held on Zoom, and we are currently running an in-person course. Our hope is to get it into as many churches as possible so they can benefit from the teaching too.

The funds raised from the books and courses will go back into the ministry to support the ongoing work.

Section E Financial review
