The Mother and Baby Village

5 November 2026

Since moving to Kent and incorporating delivery of services to Kent (in the objectives) the charity has not been operating. This is expected to change in January 2027 when a community grant is secured.

The Founder has also started research studies at University college London – which is expected to strengthen the second objective of the Charity.

The Mother and Baby Village

5 November 2026

Since moving to Kent and incorporating delivery of services to Kent (in the objectives) the charity has not been operating. This is expected to change in January 2027 when a community grant is secured.

The Founder has also started research studies at University college London – which is expected to strengthen the second objective of the Charity.