Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	The constitution is that of a Charitable Incorporated Organisation
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	The Trust is governed by a constitution dated 19 October 2021. A copy has been provided to the Commissioners
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	New Trustees may be invited by the current Trustees

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The objects of the Trust are to advance the education of the public in the subject of the built, natural and heritage landscape of London in particular but not exclusively through public lectures, seminars and conferences

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

The Trust's primary activities are planning, publicising and running public on-line lectures on subjects relating to heritage properties in London. At the time of writing (November 2026), 19 such properties are participants. The lectures are free but attendees are encouraged to make donations which are divided amongst the participating organisations after the Trust's expenses have been deducted.

All lectures are recorded and edited versions are placed on-line for the benefit of the wider public.

The Trust also acts as a forum for exchanging ideas and practical information relevant to the management of heritage properties.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

This year, the Trust completed the previous year's series of talks and organised a new series of 8 online talks, 'Spotlight Talks 2026', with a wide range of topics including two from our newest partners: Dr Johnson's House and the Museum of Richmond

Over the year, 1058 tickets were distributed and net revenue from donations was £2,502 from the current series and 723 tickets with net revenue of £1,089 from the previous series.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The Trust retains a minimum reserve of £1,000 for organising the next lecture series and other expenses.
Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about: • the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising); • how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity; • investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.
