Structure, Governance and Management

A. Governing Document

Rehmah Global Relief is an association governed by its constitution dated 2 November 2021 and registered with the Charity Commission.

B. Appointment and induction of trustees

New trustees are appointed by members at a general meeting and briefed on their legal obligations, the charity's constitution and its recent performance.

C. Organisational structure and decision making

The Board of Trustees oversees the charity's day-to-day running. Operational decisions are made at board meetings held throughout the year.

D. Risk management

The trustees assessed the major risks faced by the charity and maintained systems and procedures to manage them.

Objectives and Activities

A. Purpose and activities

The charity's objectives are set out in its governing document. During 2025-26, its work continued to focus on people affected by conflict. The charity assessed needs, including food insecurity, and organised distribution of staple foods to individuals and families. It also made £1,270 in grants to individuals.

B. Public benefit

These activities were intended to relieve immediate hardship among people in need. In planning and reviewing the work, the trustees had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit and directed support according to assessed need.

Financial Review

A. Reserves policy

The charity's policy is to maintain sufficient liquid reserves to meet short-term unforeseen obligations and expenditure. Total funds at 31 March 2026 were £1,994.36.

B. Funding

Income comprised donations and legacies of £8,489 and charitable activities income of £967.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and accounts, selecting appropriate accounting policies, making reasonable judgements and estimates, and keeping records sufficient to show the charity's financial position. They are responsible for safeguarding the charity's assets and taking reasonable steps to prevent fraud and irregularities.

Review and Approval

Total income was £9,456 and total expenditure was £8,732, giving net income of £724. Spending comprised £1,270 in grants to individuals, £7,010 spent directly on charitable activities and £452 in administration costs.

Cash at bank and total funds at 31 March 2026 were £1,994.36.

Approved by the trustees on: 01 Oct 2026
