Christ Apostolic Church River Of Life

2025 Annual General Meeting Held On 18th January 2026

Meeting commenced by 12pm at the church main hall. The opening prayer by by Mrs Iyabo Obasuyi. Pastor Olasupo encouraged the attendees to follow God's commandment and instruction, the bible text was taken from Deuteronomy 26:16.

Last Meeting Minute: The last meeting minute was not available due to the secretary at the time not available and did not summit the minutes to the pastor's office.
Pastor Olasupo briefed the meeting concerning finance, church progress, way forward, income and expenditure and the importance of keeping church documents appropriately to avoid such situation from happening again.

Financial Report: Mrs Adekola briefed the meeting the income and expenditure. Total income for year 2025 is thirty thousand, two hundred and fourty nine pounds only (£30,249.00). While the expenditure is thirty four thousand, three hundred and twenty pounds only (£34,320.00). She clarify further that rent is the major expences, while Pastor Olasupo explained the how the rent is usually paid, he said that the rent is paid quarterly which is approximately four thousand five hundred pound (£4,500.00) without utilities charges. This amount changes quarter to quarter depending on insurance charged by the landlord, which could be six thousand five hundred pound (£6,500.00).
There is a deficit of four thousand and seventeen pounds (£4,017.00).

Thanksgiving: Pastor Olasupo clarified the importance of thanksgiving purpose and how it should be explained to avoid confusion, he said, literarily, proceed from thanksgiving is meant for the ministers, but there will be exemption if there is an instruction from the giver that he or she has something in mind that the proceed should be used for. He also encouraged the church to always show the heart of gratitude to God.

Income Generation: There are suggestions about how the church can generate income to be able to meet up with the financial demand of the church.
Mr Akinterinwa advised that we need to increase our gifts and donations in order to come out of the financial situation, he advised every members to to be fiathful in paying tithe, offering and other source of the church income.
Mr Akindele mentioned the annual contribution which is minimum of One hundred and twenty pounds (£120.00) annually per person. He said that it can be increased and he encouraged everyone to pay in time. Mrs Eshile said that the committee are contributing fifty pounds (£50.00) monthly which come to six hundred pounds (£600.00) in total annually.
Elder Isaac suggested that the committee should also pay the annual development fund while Mr Adekola said the amount paid annually per head should remain the same, but anyone that want to pay more should do so.
Pastor Olasupo laid emphasis on tithe paying that it is the main church source of income, so, we should be encouraged to pay diligently. Mrs Obasuyi express further that the annual development found is too small and it should be affordable for everyone. Mr Adekola suggested that evidence of payment should be sent to Mrs Adekola for proper record and for update of the record.

Suggestion: It was suggested that
1. The church treasurer and finance should be on the high table and financial statement should be print and made available for every members.
2. The service should close early if he church council meeting falls to Sunday, to enable people to participate patiently.
3. All church members should be encouraged to attend, so that no one will be left in the dark.
4. Comprehensive report should be made available for every departmental leaders if not for all participated members.

Departmental Report:
Mrs Oguntola gave brief report concerning the choir department.
Mrs Obasuyi appreciate forming the welfare department and said it is a good development in the church, she advised if they will be given few minutes during the service to enlighten the members the importance of the department. Mrs Ademarati gave detailed that a container will be placed by the entrance for generous food stuff donation, and people who need support should not hesitate to make their request known either to the ministerial team or one of the welfare member.
Mrs Olasupo gave report on behalf of the children department saying that the money generated during the children thanksgiving was spent on improving the department. The total amount generated was three hundred and eighty pounds only (£380.00) chairs and mats were bought with the money. The department also welcome new members to the glory of God. Mrs Akinterinwa advised the parents to give the children a token as offering to encourage them to give and donate offering in the church when they become older and start earning.
Mr Akinterinwa speak on behalf of the Sunday school department, he said that there are three Sunday school teaches at the moment, the department has performed wonderfully in the year past and they are looking forward for the new year. The best performance students during the Sunday school exam will be gifted accordingly.
