KESWICK IN WALES CONVENTION
TRUSTEES REPORT

The Trustees present their report and the income and expenditure account of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Preparation of Financial Information
The income and expenditure account has been prepared in accordance with the charity's governing document, the Charities Act 2011 and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland published in October 2019.

Structure, Governance and Management
The full name of the charity is the Keswick in Wales Convention. The charity became registered with the Charity Commission in England and Wales on 26 November 2021. Its registered number is 1196792. It is governed by a Constitution dated 28 July 2021.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees
Trustees are generally already familiar with the work of the charity having attended the convention on multiple occasions prior to their appointment.
• Every Charity Trustee must endorse and abide by the Statement of Faith and the Code of Practice.
• Charity Trustees are appointed by a unanimous resolution passed at a properly convened meeting of the Charity Trustees.
• Removal of Charity Trustees, should it be necessary, is effected by a unanimous vote of the Charity Trustees.
Richard Harrison stepped down as a trustee in May 2025. The remaining trustees expressed their thanks to Richard for his years of service to the convention.

Risk Management
The Trustees ensure that the Keswick in Wales Convention complies with all relevant legislation including Data Protection and Health and Safety.

Objectives and Activities
Objects
The Object of the CIO is, for the public benefit, the advancement of the Evangelical Christian faith in particular (but without limitation) by:

• nurturing and deepening the spiritual life of the Lord's people, without denominational bias or distinction; and
• the provision of conventions for Christian worship, teaching and prayer.

Activities
The Activities of the charity include but are not restricted to:

● The holding of an annual convention in July/August in Llandrindod Wells. This includes public worship, prayer, preaching and teaching;

● The convention features three different mission organisations who are permitted to share information about their organisations with the congregation. Each mission organisation also provides a display stand with publications or other material about their work. Additional mission organisations are invited to bring display boards to increase knowledge and understanding regarding world mission. One of the featured missions each year includes a mission to Jewish people.
● a Children's Bible Club is run each year for primary school age children. This includes singing worship songs, reading the Bible, doing craft activities and praying together. It is run by a trained children's worker.
● a Christian book shop is provided and refreshments before and after most meetings.

Public Benefit
In reviewing the overall aim and the objectives of the Charity, and in exercising their powers and duties, the Trustees have had due regard for the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance. The activities of the Keswick in Wales Convention are carried out to further its charitable purpose for the public benefit as summarised in the section 'Activities' (above) and throughout this report.

Trustees Responsibilities
The Charities Act 2011 requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and the surplus of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements the trustees are required to:

● Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently
● Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
● Prepare financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the trust will continue in existence.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Achievements and Performance during the Year

We are thankful to the Lord for His blessing on our meetings at the Pavilion in Llandrindod Wells during week commencing 28th July 2025. The Lord was very gracious to those who were there and fellowship was, as usual, a great blessing in the Lord. We are thankful for the blessing of being able to "stream" our meetings live over the internet, but the greatest blessing is to meet with the people of God face to face. The morning Bible readings were very ably led by Rev David Meredith on Jonah. The evening sessions were led by Rev Philip Eveson on Isaiah 6. Rev Adrian Vaughan preached a stirring message on the Second Coming of Christ on the Thursday afternoon. On Wednesday afternoon we had a service of thanksgiving for the many years in which God has blessed His people through the Keswick in Wales convention.

The children's work was ably led by Megan Scott of Child Evangelism Fellowship

During the week we also had mission reports from the International Mission to Jewish People; European Christian Mission; and Unevangelised Fields Mission. The Bookstall was provided by Anne Newman of Purple Tulip Christian Literature Ministry and was greatly blessed with quality books etc.

There was a prayer meeting at 9.30am every morning led by the chairman, who urged those attending to take God's precious promise to the Throne of Grace and plead with our heavenly Father to have mercy upon us in these dark and dismal days.

As usual there was precious fellowship between meetings. We give the Lord all the praise and honour.

Future Plans

The convention has seen a slow decline in attendance. The trustees felt that that it should no longer continue. However, the trustees gave thanks that God had brought great blessings to many people both within and beyond Wales. Many people were converted, others sensed the call to full-time service and many local fellowships were revived.

At their meetings on 27th September 2025 and 13th December 2025 the trustees resolved to wind up the charity. The trustees agreed to make disbursements of £900 to four missions to Jewish people as follows:

- International Mission to Jewish People
- Messianic Testimony
- Jews for Jesus
- Society for Distribution of Hebrew Scripture

The outstanding remaining funds (£50) were gifted to Purple Tulip Books in recognition of their support to the convention.

We give the Lord all the glory and praise for past blessings and pray that He will have mercy on Wales and beyond; and that He will yet once more pour out of His Holy Spirit upon His people. "Oh, that Thou wouldst rend the heavens and come down, that the mountains might flow at Thy presence" (Isaiah 64: 1).

Financial Review

Total income for the year ending 31 December 2025 was £11,079.83 and expenditure was £21,569.27, resulting in a deficit of £10,489.44 for the year. Bank balances as of 31st December 2025 totalled £0.00. The CAF Cash Account and the CAF Gold Account have both been closed.

Approved by the Trustees on 13 February 2026 and signed on their behalf by John Mitson, Trustee
