The British Friends of Rabbis for Human Rights (Charity no 1197223)

Accounts for the year ended 31 December 2024

Trustees' Annual Report

Objectives and Activities

The charity's purpose is to raise funds and apply them for charitable causes and humanitarian projects. During the year, the charity continued to receive donations from supporters and distribute funds to charitable organisations and projects aligned with its objectives. The principal activities included support for organisations operating in Israel and human rights initiatives.

Financial Review

During the year, the charity received donations of £23,122 and made charitable and administrative payments of approximately £18,431, resulting in an excess of receipts over payments of £4,691. Cash balances increased from £8,386 at the beginning of the year to £13,077 at 31 December 2024.

The charity's financial position remains strong, with all funds held in cash at bank at the year end.

Principal Funding Sources

The charity's income during the year consisted primarily of voluntary donations received directly and through fundraising platforms including JustGiving.

Reserves Policy

The trustees seek to maintain sufficient unrestricted reserves to meet future charitable commitments and ongoing administrative expenses.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records and preparing accounts that adequately disclose, with reasonable accuracy, the financial position of the charity.
