Thomas Creedy (from October 2025)

Structure, governance and management

The charity's governing document is a CIO – Foundation Constitution registered 23 December 2021. Trustees of the Tyndale Fellowship are appointed by the trustees and must number not less than 3 and not more than 10. Our Governance Procedure was agreed by trustees in 2023 and updated on 9 October 2026. This year we expanded our trustee body by two members in order to expand the skills and capacity of the trustee body. Our Chair signalled his intention to step down from that role after the 2026 conference and a search committee for a new Chair began its work.

Objectives and activities

The Fellowship's charitable objective is:

> TO ADVANCE THE EVANGELICAL CHRISTIAN RELIGION, IN PARTICULAR (BUT WITHOUT LIMITATION) THROUGH FOSTERING AND NURTURING A SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SCHOLARS WHO FOCUS ON BIBLICAL, THEOLOGICAL AND PHILOSOPHICAL RESEARCH.

In line with this purpose, over the past year the Fellowship has organized an annual conference at which all of our study groups met, has maintained a website promoting our activities, and has maintained an active membership.

These activities are to the public benefit in that they foster Christian scholarship for the benefit of the evangelical and wider church including in its service of society. The trustees have had due regard to the Charity Commission's public benefit guidance when making decisions about the Fellowship's activities.

Achievement and performance

In the year 2025, the Fellowship organized an annual conference on 30 June – 2 July at The Hayes conference centre. We provided our members with benefits including access to Tyndale House online resources and discounted booking of study spaces in their library in Cambridge. We hosted 6 Tyndale Fellowship Lectures, and these were recorded and have been made available online to members with the intention of them being made available online in the future. We promoted scholarship by advertising books and other publications produced by our study groups on our website.

Financial review

Our Governance Procedure determines that we should hold a General Fund reserve of 75% of the conference costs for that year. This would be enough to discharge any outstanding liabilities in the event of a cancelled conference or the winding up of the Fellowship. The amount of those reserves at the end of this year was £32,812. We have two restricted funds, the I. H. Marshall Fund (conference bursaries for overseas students) and the J. Collins Fund (conference bursaries for poorer applicants); these are not included in our General Fund. The Collins Fund is close to being fully spent (we anticipate it being spent down and closed in the coming year) and trustees will explore possibilities of attracting other bursary funding in the coming year.
