TRUSTEES' ANNUAL RETURN

for the Financial Year ended 31 December 2025

CHERT Reference: CHERT 119

Objects and Purpose

1.1. To advance education for the public benefit about the history of the struggle for LGBT+ rights, including but not limited to the origins and history of the Campaign for Homosexual Equality (CHE)and by contributing to the safe preservation of LGBT+ archives.

1.2. To promote equality and diversity by encouraging a deeper understanding of the causes and progress of changes in public acceptance of LGBT+ rights.

Activities during the year

1.1. The Trustees met on four occasions during the year, with business mainly focussed on monitoring and progressing work on the second volume of Amiable Warriors: The Best of Enemies the commissioned history of CHE. Further work was undertaken completing the transfer of documentation and information about CHE websites and email lists, and arranging the transfer of assets from the Campaign for Homosexual Equality to the CHE Research Trust. Work began to commission a web designer with view to rationalising the three existing websites and constructing new single site easier to manage whilst retaining all the relevant historical content.

1.2. The transfer of assets to the Charity has now been completed.

1.3. Two Trustees continue to share the role of Treasurer following the transfer of assets in the first quarter of the 2025 calendar year.

Financial position

1.4. The resolution passed at the 50th CHE Conference in 2021 empowered the Trustees, acting in their capacity as the Executive Committee of CHE, to transfer sufficient money from CHE to CHERT to enable CHERT to fulfil its charitable objects. As of 31st December 2024, these assets totalled £85,803.97.

1.5. In this financial year, income totalled £2,511.25 from donations, sales and bank interest. Expenditure totalled £4.084.35, consisting of a grant to Peter Scott-Presland, the author of Amiable Warriors and bank charges.

1.6. The Financial Statement for the year ending 31st December 2025 is attached.

Signed for and on behalf of the Board of Trustees of CHERT:
