The trustees present this report for the year ended 31 December 2025 in accordance with the charity's governing document and the requirements of the Charity Commission for England and Wales. This combines the Trustees' Annual Report and the Receipts and Payments Accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Objectives and activities

Objectives and aims. CCC's objects, as summarised on the Charity Commission register, are to create informal but spiritual environments focused on Jesus within local communities — in homes, pubs and community centres — and to see more communities of faith in the UK and beyond that love and care for their neighbourhoods, workplaces, families and friends.

Public benefit. Building on the foundations laid in 2024 — a year CCC spent establishing its spiritual life and internal structures — 2025 continued the charity's core activity of weekly Sunday gatherings for worship, prayer, biblical teaching and fellowship, open to the wider community rather than a closed congregation. This advanced CCC's objects by giving members of the public an informal, welcoming space to encounter Christian faith and community life, consistent with the charity's purpose of fostering communities of faith that love and care for their neighbourhoods, families and friends. The trustees are satisfied that this activity, together with the pastoral and hardship support described below, delivered public benefit consistent with CCC's charitable objects.

Achievements and performance

CCC met regularly, on a weekly basis each Sunday, for worship, prayer and fellowship, throughout the year ended 31 December 2025. Building on the foundations laid in CCC's first full year of operation, the trustees are grateful for the steady progress made in 2025, which included:

- Weekly Sunday gatherings for worship, prayer, biblical teaching and fellowship, held throughout the year
- Hospitality and catering events held in April, May, June and September 2025, drawing together members and guests for fellowship
- £1,000 of hardship relief given to a struggling church member in June 2025, to support him attending a family funeral in India — a concrete expression of practical compassion
- Regular tithes, offerings and payroll-giving donations from a committed group of supporters sustained the charity's work throughout the year

The trustees met regularly throughout the year to review CCC's governance, finances and direction, in keeping with the charity's objectives.

Financial review

Financial position. For the year ended 31 December 2025, CCC received £5,049.00, the great majority of it tithes and offerings from individual donors, plus £370.00 received via Give As You Earn payroll giving. Spending totalled £1,806.81, giving a net surplus of £3,242.19 for the year.

The largest single payment was £1,000, paid on 5 June 2025 to Abraham Charles, a CCC church member who was struggling financially and needed to attend a family member's funeral in India. Confirmed: at a regular trustee meeting held by Zoom call, the trustees agreed this as a hardship relief gift to him, paid from CCC's reserve funds. Other spending covered catering (£470.00), hospitality and events (£129.96), supplies (£166.85), and bank charges (£40.00).

Cash funds held by CCC rose from £13,299.50 at 1 January 2025 to £16,541.69 at 31 December 2025, all held in the HSBC charity current account.

Reserves policy

CCC held £16,541.69 in free reserves at 31 December 2025. The charity has a policy of holding at least six months' expenditure as general reserves to cater for unknown levels or unexpected drops in income. Restricted funds, if any, are ring-fenced.

Structure, governance and management

Governing document. CCC is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation using the Foundation model, registered with the Charity Commission on 12 May 2022. The charity is managed by a board of trustees who meet regularly to oversee strategy, grants, and compliance.

Recruitment and appointment of trustees.

Trustees are recruited based on skills, experience, and alignment with the charity's Christian ethos. No trustee received any remuneration, payment or benefit from CCC during the year.

Related party disclosures. J Yona, appointed a trustee on 7 April 2026, is also a trustee of Poikilos (formerly BSV)

Risk management includes financial controls and operational risks.

Notes to the accounts

1. Give As You Earn donations. Confirmed: this £50 credit (shown on the bank statement as "CR ADVISED") and a further £320 credit on 29 December 2025 (shown as "CR CAFGYE71000834854") are both Give As You Earn payroll-giving donations
2. Hardship relief payment. The £1,000 payment on 5 June 2025 to Abraham Charles is shown here as hardship relief, not a gift to another church. He is a CCC church member who was struggling financially and needed to attend a family member's funeral in India. Confirmed: at a regular trustee meeting held by Zoom call, the trustees agreed to make this payment to him from CCC's reserve funds.
3. Basis of preparation. These accounts are prepared on a receipts and payments basis, which is available to CCC because its gross income is below £250,000 — the threshold that applied for the year ended 31 December 2025, before the Charity Commission's thresholds changed from 30 September 2026.
4. Gift Aid. No Gift Aid was claimed in 2025. CCC is not yet recognised by HMRC for Gift Aid purposes; a separate guide covers the steps to apply once this return is filed.
5. Independent examination. Not required. CCC's gross income of £5,049.00 is well below the £25,000 threshold that applied for the year ended 31 December 2025.
6. Related party disclosures. J Yona, appointed a trustee on 7 April 2026 (after the year end), is also a trustee of Poikilos (formerly BSV)
