Section B Structure, governance and management

Description of the charity's trusts

Type of governing document (eg. trust deed, constitution)	Constitution
How the charity is constituted (eg. trust, association, company)	Charitable Incorporated Organisation
Trustee selection methods (eg. appointed by, elected by)	Trustees are volunteers and are appointed by members of the show committee at the Annual General Meeting

Additional governance issues (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

The Charity operates through the support of volunteers including the trustees and annual show organising committee which meets on a regular basis throughout the year.

The Charity has a health and safety risk assessment and volunteers assisting on the show day are given a health and safety briefing.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The object of the Society is to promote agriculture, horticulture, equestrianism, and the rural environment, raising awareness for the public benefit within North Yorkshire, and in particular, but not exclusively, the Borrowby and Knayton areas of the County.
Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	The Society aims to hold an annual agricultural show and gymkhana for the exhibition of farming stock, crafts, produce, and handicrafts.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The Society held a successful annual show on Saturday, 26th July 2025 which was well attended by circa 1,500 visitors.

The show included multiple exhibitors in the sheep, equestrian, and fur (rabbits and guinea pigs) classes; a display of vintage agricultural equipment; and 1,350 entries in the horticultural and handicraft exhibits in the main marquee, including crafts and art work produced by local school children.

At the show the Society provides free exhibition space for local charities, including Yorkshire Air Ambulance.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	The Society aims to hold sufficient reserves to cover the costs associated with holding the annual show in the event of cancellation due to an unforeseen event.
Details of any funds materially in deficit	None

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The principal source of funds for the charity is from the sale of tickets to attend the show day.

In addition, we receive sponsorship from local businesses serving the local agricultural and horticultural community.

The society also holds a fundraising event at Christmas.

Expenditure is associated with holding the annual show, e.g. hire of marquee for the produce and handicraft exhibits, hire of barriers to lay out the show field, event insurance, and provision of on-site medics.

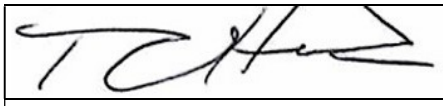

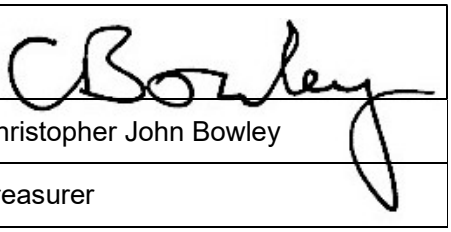

Any surplus funds are held in an investment account, e.g. a National Savings and Investment account.

Section F Other optional information

Section G Declaration

The trustees declare that they have approved the trustees' report above.

Signed on behalf of the charity's trustees
