We are a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), controlled by three trustees - Dr Gregory Colbourn, Carina Fearnley and Kathryn Mecrow. The organisation is directed by our Executive Director (Gregory Colbourn). Kathryn Mecrow replaced Katriel Friedman as a Trustee on 1 December 2025.

This organisation is an independent charity with a close relationship with the international organisation, the Alliance to Feed the Earth in Disasters. This organisation seeks to identify various resilient food solutions and to help governments and companies implement these solutions to feed everyone in the event of a global catastrophe. The focus is on events that could deplete 5% or more of global calorie output, or access to those calories. ALLFED UK is currently waiting for funding opportunities, and will begin carrying out activities once we have secured funding.

The Trustees will apply any funds we receive in accordance with the charitable purposes and objectives of the charity. Namely:

- The prevention or relief of poverty.
- The advancement of education, training and research.
- The protection and preservation of health.
- The relief and assistance of people in any part of the world who are the victims of war or natural disaster, trouble, or catastrophe including (but not limited to) the development and promotion of awareness, resilience and practical solutions to prevent and alleviate the impact of abrupt, protracted or catastrophic shortages of food and other life-sustaining resources (and the access to those resources).

In the year under review, the Trustees confirm that they have complied with their duties under Section 17 of the Charities Act 2011, to have regard for the public benefit guidance issued by the Charity Commission for England and Wales.

Approved by the board of Trustees on 29th September 2026, and signed on their behalf by:

Dr Gregory Colbourn
