During the year, Christoforos Charity Foundation continued its programme of educational and awareness work focused on keeping children safer online. The charity delivered school-based presentations and assemblies covering online grooming, sextortion, cyberbullying, gaming and private messaging risks, harmful content, inappropriate challenges, mental wellbeing, and the importance of speaking to a trusted adult and reporting concerns.

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning and delivering the charity's activities.

Achievements and Performance

The charity continued to develop its reach and profile through online-safety education, engagement with schools, parents and communities, awareness work, advocacy, volunteering and fundraising. Its lived-experience approach helps communicate the consequences of online harm while giving children practical guidance on seeking help.
