Our structure
The LGP resources churches for mission and so has:

a) Board of Trustees comprised of evangelical leaders (who represent several London church networks and none) who are theologically aligned. From this committee a Chair is chosen as well as Chairs for each Event Executive. To enable genuine discussion, this group numbers from 6 to 12 (with a non-voting administrator where required) and meets termly. Initial appointments are reviewed after three years.

b*)* Event Executives who organise the three different events run by LGP. The Chair of each Event Executive will recruit members from a range of churches who bring skills in delivering on the brief provided by the Trustees.

Our activities and objectives in the year
Our revised vision was launched at our Annual General Meeting:

> Promoting partnership across denominations and networks > between gospel churches
> *to reach London

We continued to provide our three main events of the year: an Annual Conference in March (to equip church leadership teams for effective gospel ministry); a three-day residential Preachers

Conference in April (to equip regular preachers to faithfully proclaim the Word of God); and a half-day Pray for London Gathering in October (to pray together for gospel outreach in London).

In addition, our partnership had the additional objective of providing a valuable opportunity to foster working relationships across denominations and networks, as well as across the whole London area and between large and small churches.

Our achievements and performance
All three of our events took place successfully and those who attended – from local churches across London – appreciated being equipped further in the task of bringing the gospel to the diverse communities of London. We also continued to provide a means for growing relationships between the different churches of our partnership. A new initiative this year was to create a London events calendar to share with other evangelical organisations holding similar events in the city, in order to help us work together better and avoid date clashes.

In addition, we continued to make numerous organisational changes over this period, including completing our independence as a charity, with no funds now managed on our behalf by St Helen Bishopsgate and us setting up our own email system. We also appointed a Safeguarding Officer, adopted a Safeguarding Policy and began work on drawing up other policies, with this being made the particular focus of Corinne Brixton, one of our Trustees. Another Trustee, David Lee, was given particular oversight of our finances.

Our financial review
Our funding was drawn entirely from contributions from our larger partner churches, though we also made a small surplus on ticket sales from the Annual Conference and Preachers Conference. Our Trustees gave their time voluntarily, but a new part-time administrator was employed on a freelance basis to oversee the day-to-day running of our charity.

Our finances show an opening balance of £2,928 with total income of £25,778 and expenditure of £23,018, leaving a closing balance of £5,688. This has enabled us to build up our cash reserves, and also means that we are able to secure the preferred dates and venues for our conferences by putting down deposits up to two years in advance.

Rev Richard Bray (Chair of Trustees)
