3. Review of Activities and Achievements

Since the charity was originally established, circumstances have changed significantly. Following consideration of these developments, the trustees concluded that the charity was no longer in a position to fulfil its intended role in the manner originally envisaged.

Consequently, the charity did not undertake any charitable activities during the reporting period.

The trustees have reviewed the charity's future and determined that its continued existence is no longer necessary or appropriate.

Any remaining charitable funds, if applicable, will be dealt with in accordance with the charity's governing document and the relevant legal requirements.

6. Future Plans and Closure

Following a review of the charity's circumstances, the trustees have concluded that winding up the charity is the most appropriate course of action.

- Confirm that the charity has no outstanding liabilities or obligations.
- Deal with any remaining assets in accordance with the governing document and charity law.
- Complete the necessary formalities to dissolve the charity and notify the Charity Commission.
