Trustees annual report

United Kingdom Civil Reserve
Registered charity 1205576
3 November 2023 to 31 March 2025

Overview

This first report covers the charity's establishment and voluntary activities from registration on 3 November 2023 to 31 March 2025. UKCR contributed time, experience and advice to emergency preparedness and disaster response. Its work was undertaken voluntarily and without charging for services. The charity had no bank account and, on the financial information provided, received no income and incurred no expenditure during the period.

Reference and governance

United Kingdom Civil Reserve is a foundation Charitable Incorporated Organisation governed by its constitution. The trustee recorded for the reporting period is Jonathon James Ralph Wynniatt-Husey. Richard Bowyer supported the organisation in a non-trustee capacity.
Principal address during the reporting period: 46.1a Dunsfold Park, Stovolds Hill, Cranleigh, GU6 8TB. The charity's address has subsequently changed.
Trustees are appointed in accordance with the constitution. The intended expansion of the trustee board is a future development and is not presented as having occurred during this reporting period.

Charitable purposes and public benefit

UKCR's purposes concern saving lives and providing relief and assistance following major incidents, natural disasters and emergencies, together with preparedness and community resilience. Its work brings voluntary expertise to emergency planning and response for the benefit of affected communities and the wider public.
The public benefit of the period's work lay in sharing experience, supporting crisis-management preparation and developing relationships with people and organisations working in resilience and disaster response.

Activities and achievements

UKCR contributed to desktop exercises supporting resilience partners in crisis management. Volunteers shared advice and experience, helping participants consider incident response and coordination. UKCR also attended resilience and disaster-response meetings, contributing to discussions and developing contacts relevant to its charitable purposes.
All activity described for the reporting period was undertaken on a voluntary, unpaid basis, with no fees charged by the charity. No claim is made that the charity financed a deployment or delivered paid services.

Financial review and reserves

The accompanying receipts and payments accounts show total receipts of £0 and total payments of £0. The charity did not operate a bank account. No paid staff, trustee remuneration or expense reimbursements are reported. Volunteer time is not assigned a monetary value in these accounts. On the nil-asset and nil-liability basis reported by management, the charity held no reserves at 31 March 2025. There were no restricted or endowment funds. Future funded activity will require fundraising and appropriate banking and financial controls. A reserves target will need to be considered as that activity develops.

Plans for the following reporting period

The priorities identified for the period following 31 March 2025 are to raise funds, develop a proposed deployment to Nepal, appoint additional trustees, open a charity bank account and approach organisations about UKCR's engagement in the United Kingdom. Any deployment will depend on the necessary resources and arrangements being in place. These are plans, rather than statements that the activities were completed.

Trustee review and approval

The trustees have reviewed and approved this report. In carrying out the charity's activities, the trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit.
