You may choose to include additional information, where relevant, about:

- policies and procedures adopted for the induction and training of trustees;
- the charity's organisational structure and any wider network with which the charity works;
- relationship with any related parties;
- trustees' consideration of major risks and the system and procedures to manage them.

Training that some of the trustees have completed consist of Safeguarding and Safeguarding lead roles. First Aid Refresher course. Additional Needs parenting Facilitator course.

Sendourway works together with the Messy Play team at Southend Christian Fellowship in Southend to deliver its coffee morning sessions. All members of the team have enhanced DBS certificates.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To promote social inclusion for the public benefit by preventing people from becoming socially excluded, relieving the needs of those people who are socially excluded and assisting them to integrate into society.
The promotion of social inclusion among parents and their children who have Special Educational Needs, who are excluded from society, or parts of society, due to their social and economic position by the provision of a drop in support centre, supervised arts and craft sessions, coffee mornings and parenting courses to enable SEND parents and their children to develop and gain new skills".

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

During this period, our second year, SENDOURWAY has run coffee mornings together with Messy play activities for parents/caregivers who have children and young adults with additional needs. These have been run on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday mornings of each month.

During this period, we have prepared a Dad's course ready to run in the future.

The charity has also run Send parenting courses for children with additional needs and arts and crafts for parents, Grandparents and caregivers who have children with additional needs.

Sendourway have produced printed leaflets to advertise who we are and what we do in the community. We have also produced welcome packs with a range of information about us and details of how to contact us, including business cards printed with the charity's website and contact details on them for easy access.

Future Plans:
Further Training including, a Parenting Facilitator SEND Course and Family Support Worker training. To run a Dad's course.

To continue arts & crafts and to run SEND children parenting courses while continuing coffee mornings in a Community Church setting.

Work alongside Canewdon Community Centre, to support staff and encourage them to create their own group support activities.
Planning to visit groups in churches, U3A etc, to inform and promote our charity,
Continue to look for further funding opportunities to support existing activities and new opportunities.

Additional details of objectives and activities (Optional information)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grantmaking;
- policy programme related investment;
- contribution made by volunteers.

Sendourway does not make grants or have investments.

Section D Achievements and performance

Section D Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

During this year, SENDOURWAY has successfully run a number of coffee mornings, with over half of these including Messy play activities for parents/caregivers who have children and young adults with additional needs. These have been run on the 2nd and 4th Tuesday mornings of each month.
We have helped and supported a number of families and their children and are expecting to help and support more people in the coming year.
Other achievements include successfully presenting 1 parenting courses for parents of primary age children, 1 additional Needs parenting course and 4 arts and craft sessions for parents, caregivers and Grandparents of children with additional needs.
We are planning to do more Parenting courses in the coming year including a SEND parenting course.

We have achieved, with careful planning, a positive bank balance at the end of the year putting us in a good position to start the coming year.

Section E Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves	Due to current financial status and set-up SENDOURWAY currently do not have any employees, contractual commitments and have no reserves.
Details of any funds materially in deficit

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising);
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity;
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

The grant funding that we have been awarded has supported the charity to enable us to do specific training such as Safe Guarding, Parenting, Facilitator course for SEND families and Family Support Worker which has enabled us to run courses for families.
Other funding has given us opportunities to run a coffee morning/messy play for parents/caregivers and Grandparents with young children who have additional needs. This has provided families to have a safe environment where they can share their concerns as well as sign posting them to the right authorities that would benefit them.
We also run craft sessions for the adults to give them some wellbeing time for themselves and opportunities to meet new friends.
