REPORT OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER
FOR THE PERIOD 31 DECEMBER 2024 TO 30 DECEMBER 2025

We report on the accounts of the organisation for the year ended 30 December 2025, which are set out on pages 5 to 8.

Respective responsibilities of trustee
The charity's trustees also the trustee of the company are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is our responsibility to:
- examine the accounts under section 145 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission (under section 145(5)(b) of the Charities Act, and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report
Our examination was carried out in accordance with general trustee given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts, presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently, no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true. and fair' view and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

Independent examiner's statement
In connection with our examination, no material matters have come to our attention which gives us cause to believe that in, any material respect:
- accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act or
- the accounts do not accord with the accounting records

we have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding? of the accounts to be reached.
