Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The period ending December 2025 marks the second accounting period of the charity, whereby it conducted a number of public benefit activities, namely; ● Conferences aimed at the youth. Similar to the previous accounting period, a number of conferences, open to the whole public were conducted through the period. The conferences were free of charge to the public, where the public enjoyed listening to senior Islamic Scholars from around the UK, alongside food and beverages. In 2025 the charity enhanced the quality and quantity of the conferences, with guests citing how they felt spiritually boosted with a passion and zeal ignited to drive a connection with the wider public, in particular the youth. Key concepts such as integrity, honesty, family and morality. The number of guests also saw an increase year on year. ● The charity continued its production of numerous pieces of islamic scholarly literature. These were all free of charge and have received hundreds of views. ● The charity also bolstered its social media presence, producing educational content on Youtube which are increasing in views. Tiktok presence increased in the year. ● The charity continued to provide food aid to the homeless during the period.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	The charity during and at the end of the financial period is financially stable and holds sufficient cash reserves. As a new charity, it has no liabilities, and only a cash in the bank at the year end. The main source of the funds were from donations, and as the presence of charity grows, this is expected to increase the amount of donations. Furthermore, as the social media presence grows, and publishing of books; the charity seeks to diversify its income and donation streams. Funds expended in the charitable activities are carefully scrutinised, and a robust vetting process of procurement of venues, food and printing has been introduced ensuring strong financial control and discipline. The charity is governed by competent and professional trustees, experienced in different fields and further supported through a volunteer network, enabling a strong governance and management control environment.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	The charity has held reserves at the end of the financial year as it prepares to continue it's charitable activities during 2026 and beyond.
