Serving the Lord in Truth Ministries

2025 Annual Trustees' Report

Serving the Lord in Truth Ministries
Reporting Period: 1st January to 31st December 2025

1. Charity Overview

Serving the Lord in Truth Ministries is a Christian organisation committed to the advancement of the Christian faith. Our mission is to train and educate church leaders, workers, and members in Nigeria, the United Kingdom, and other parts of the world.

2. Object Clause

The object of Serving the Lord in Truth Ministries is the advancement of the Christian faith through the training and education of church leaders, workers, and members in Nigeria and other parts of the world, not excluding the United Kingdom.

3. Key Activities and Achievements

3.1. Nigerian Charity Registration

During the year, the charity was officially registered in Nigeria, providing a strong legal foundation for our activities and outreach within the country.

3.2. Nigerian Charity Bank Account

The charity now has a functioning Bank account in Nigeria; this means that funds can be sent directly into the charity's account for its work in Nigeria.

3.3. Bible and Ministry Workbook Translation

- AI translation completed for all materials
- First stage peer review conducted by three translators per course
- Full review by all nine translators is currently underway
- This process ensures theological authenticity, clarity, and faithfulness to the message

3.4. Donor Growth and Gift Aid

A growing number of donors have committed to regular support, and accompanying gift aid forms have been signed, enhancing the value of every contribution.

3.5. Donation from Central Baptist Church – Luton

The charity received a sum of £5,000.00 from Central Baptist Church, Luton, in support of the charity's kingdom-building work.

3.6. Book Donation from Dr Keith Warrington

We received confirmation from Dr Keith Warrington of his intention to donate copies of all his published books to support the charity's work in Nigeria.

Professor E Oyemomi

Professor Oyemomi has settled in his position as the charity's representative in Nigeria, and he is already promoting the charity's work and making contacts with individuals and organisations that can work with and benefit from the charity's work.

3.7. Teaching Programmes – Lagos and Oyo

Bible and Ministry's spiritual formation programmes continue to thrive at Baptist Colleges in Lagos and Oyo, equipping future leaders with sound theological training.

4. Future

Looking ahead, we aim to:

- Finalise the complete peer review of translated materials
- Launch the Nigerian charity bank account
- Expand training to additional theological institutions
- Increase donor engagement and community partnerships

5. Acknowledgements

We extend our deepest thanks to all our donors, partners, volunteers, and church communities. Your faith, generosity, and encouragement empower us to continue fulfilling our mission with dedication and grace.

6. Financial review and reserves

The net income for the year was a gain of £15,265 (2024: £3,085). At the end of the financial year, the reserves of unrestricted funds were £15,265 (2024: £3,085). The adequacy of the reserves policy is reviewed annually.

The reserves policy is to maintain sufficient reserves to ensure the day-to-day operation continues into the foreseeable future.

Public Benefit Statement

The trustees confirm that the charity's activities continue to provide clear public benefit in accordance with Charity Commission guidance, particularly through educational programmes, pastoral support, and community strengthening initiatives.
