Trustee selection methods (e.g., appointed by, elected by	1. There must be at least 3 trustees. Apart from the first trustees, every trustee must be appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. 2. In selecting individuals for appointment as charity trustees, the charity trustees must have regard to the skills, knowledge and experience needed for the effective administration of the CIO.

Section C Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document	The prevention or relief of poverty by providing or assisting in the provision of food, essential items, education and health care projects as a practical expression of the Islamic faith through the provision and use of zakat funds.
Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)	During the period, the Helping Hands Family Trust undertook a range of charitable activities aimed at fulfilling its objects: the prevention or relief of poverty through the provision or support of food, essential items, education, and healthcare. These activities were carried out as a practical expression of the Islamic faith through the application of Zakat funds. Key activities included: • Distribution of food parcels and essential household items to individuals and families in need. • Support for education through the provision of learning materials and assistance with school-related expenses. • Health-related initiatives, including access to basic medical care and hygiene supplies. • Collaboration with local and international partners to reach underserved communities efficiently and respectfully. All activities were carried out with the intention of delivering measurable public benefit in accordance with the CIO stated objectives. The trustees confirm that they have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit when planning and reviewing the Trust's activities and in making decisions about the allocation of resources.
