Structure, governance and management

The charity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation, registered on 8 May 2024 and governed by its constitution.
Apart from the first charity trustees, trustees are appointed for a term of three years by resolution at a properly convened meeting of the charity trustees. In making appointments, the trustees consider the skills, knowledge and experience required for the effective administration of the charity.

The charity has no paid staff, and all activities are carried out by the trustees on a voluntary basis.

Objectives and activities

The charity's objectives are:
(1) The relief of sickness and distress of children and young adults under the age of 21 in hospitals in England who are suffering from childhood cancer and other chronic critical medical conditions, in such ways as the trustees shall think fit, in particular by the provision of items, gifts and the granting of wishes.

(2) The prevention or relief of poverty, anywhere in the world, in particular in developing countries, by providing: grants, items and services to individuals in need and/or charities, or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

Achievements and performance

During the year, the charity maintained its website and the trustees held discussions regarding potential charitable activities and the allocation of available funds in accordance with the charity's objectives. No direct charitable activities were undertaken during this period. The trustees remain committed to progressing the charity's objectives in the forthcoming year.

The trustees are satisfied with the charity’s progress and have planned to make more progress over the next annual year.

Financial review

Total receipts for the year were £0, balance carried forward £6893, and total payments were £245, leaving a year-end balance of £6648.

The trustees consider the charity’s financial position to be satisfactory and continue to operate on a sound footing with modest reserves.

Reserves policy

The trustees aim to hold sufficient reserves to cover any planned commitments and small running costs.

At the year-end, the charity held £6648 in reserves. These funds are available to support the charity’s future charitable activities and fundraising.

Public benefit

The trustees confirm that they have complied with their duty to have due regard to the Charity Commission’s guidance on public benefit when planning the charity’s activities.

Plans for the future

In the coming year, the trustees intend to:

- Continue to explore opportunities to raise funds through community fundraising activities and events.
- Identify suitable charitable causes and individuals who may benefit from financial assistance or gifts.
- Consider opportunities to provide support to children and young adults experiencing serious illness or difficult circumstances.
- Explore working with established charities and community organisations to support suitable charitable projects.
- Increase awareness of the charity through its online and social media presence and encourage greater community involvement.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records and preparing a Trustees' Annual Report and Accounts in accordance with applicable law and regulations.
