Charitable Objects

The objects of the charity ('the objects') are for the benefit of the public:
(a) to advance the Christian faith in accordance with the statement in such ways and in such parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the trustees from time to time may think fit;
(b) to relieve sickness and financial hardship and to promote and preserve good health by the provision of funds, goods or services of any kind including the provision of counselling and support in such parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the trustees from time to time think fit;
(c) to advance education in such ways and in such parts of the United Kingdom or the world as the trustees from time to time may think fit.

Review of Activities

The trustees have paid due regard to guidance issued by the Charity Commission in deciding what activities the charity should undertake. The trustees have also complied with duty in section 4 of the Charities Act 2006 to have due regard to the public benefit guidance published by the Charity Commission.

During 2025 the outworking of the above objectives, saw the following activities take place;

Ezer (formally known as Hope for All) – supporting an educational project in Kampala who equip young woman and mothers to learn skills that will enable them to develop their own micro business and sustain a self-sufficient income. Skills include tailoring, hairdressing & bakery.

Cephas Leadership Foundation – provided training, opportunities for networking, for developing and maturing leaders in Uganda.

FACT – Future after childhood trauma – a registered community based project in Uganda supporting and empowering children, provides education, accommodation, feeding and clothing.

Trustees' Responsibilities

Charity Law requires us as Trustees to prepare financial statements for each accounting year which record the receipts and payments of the charity for the year.

We are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and enable us to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011.

We also have responsibility to safeguard the assets of the charity and to take reasonable steps to prevent fraud or any other irregularities.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees	CREATED TO SOAR MINISTRIES
On accounts for the year ended	31 Dec 2025
Charity no (if any)	1208361
Set out on pages

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended .

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

[~~The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]~~]. Delete [ ] if not applicable.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination ~~(other than that disclosed below *)~~ which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
