This compassionate response reflected the unity and love of the church family. We remain committed to bearing one another's burdens and demonstrating Christ's love through mutual care and support.

Aid and Member Support - The church provided financial assistance to members facing hardship, helping individuals and families meet essential needs. This support reflected Christian values of generosity, compassion, and mutual care. Through these acts of kindness, the church strengthened fellowship, promoted unity, and demonstrated Christ's love in practical ways.

19. Finance Team
The Finance Team continued to manage the church's finances with diligence and accountability. Its responsibilities include collecting offerings, maintaining accurate financial records, managing bank accounts, and processing payments.
All income and expenditure are managed in line with decisions approved by the Elders and Trustees, ensuring transparency and good governance. Through faithful stewardship, the team has supported the church's ministries, operations, and long-term sustainability. We are grateful for their commitment to financial integrity and responsible management of church resources.

20. Men's Group and Fundraising
The Men’s Group supported the church by committing to regular monthly contributions according to each member’s ability. This initiative inspired many other members of the congregation to establish regular giving arrangements of their own.

Together with Sunday offerings, these contributions have helped sustain the church's ministries and activities. We thank God for the generosity and faithful stewardship of our members, whose giving continues to support the church's mission and service.
