Governance

Goleudy Harlech Church is a charitable incorporated organisation.
Goleudy Harlech Church CIO is governed by its constitution.
There was no change in the trustees in post during the reporting year.
From 1 April 2025 until 11 January 2026, the CIO operated in accordance with 'Goleudy Harlech Church constitution version 1.3 February 2025'.
From 11 January 2026 until 31 March 2026, the CIO operated in accordance with 'Goleudy Harlech Church constitution version 1.4 January 2026'.
The new constitution incorporated a minor change to Clause 11(1): the maximum interval between general meetings changed from 6 to 8 months.

The objects of the CIO are

Advancing the Christian faith and the worship of God for the benefit of the public in the United Kingdom and elsewhere in the world in accordance with our Statement of Faith by providing facilities for worship and prayer, religious education, Christian fellowship, outreach and pastoral care in the local community.

Public Benefit Statement

The trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when planning the charity's activities for the year. The activities carried out during the period were all undertaken to further the charity's purposes for the public benefit.

Activities in pursuance of the objects

During the period the charity carried out the following activities in furtherance of its charitable objects:

A weekly church service attended by between 15 and 40 people.

A weekly bible-study, prayer and fellowship evening attended by between 8 and 15 people.

The organising of three community engagement events:

Remembrance Sunday refreshments - 50+ people served.

Carol Service - 80+ people attending.

Outdoor Easter Day sunrise service - 100+ people attending.

The financial support of food banks.

A fortnightly youth group session during term time.

The sponsoring of 15 local young people to attend a Christian camping holiday.

The trustees believe that each of these activities furthered the charity's purposes and helped to meet the charity's objects.

The trustees are committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of all who take part in the charity's activities and follow appropriate safeguarding policies and procedures.

Accounts statement:

The accounts have been prepared and approved in line with the Charity Commission's requirements for small charities.

The CIO's financial results for the period are set out in the form of Receipts and Payments Accounts.

Headline figures (1 April 2025 – 31 March 2026):

Total income: £24,329

Total expenditure: £13,773

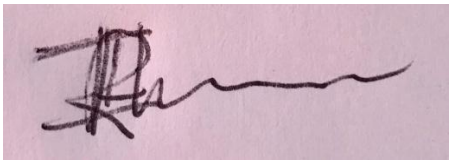

Funds carried forward at year end: £10,556

The charity remains financially stable with modest reserves appropriate to its size.

Because our income was below £25,000, our accounts have been prepared on the receipts and payments basis and no independent examination was required.

Approved by the trustees on 18th September 2026 and signed on their behalf by:

Ian Hampson
Chair of Trustees
