Structure, Governance and Management

The Brian Blinco Charitable Will Trust was registered with the Charity Commission on 16 October 2024. The charity was established in connection with the estate of the late Brian Blinco, who died on 31 October 2023, and is administered by the trustees in accordance with its governing document and applicable charity law.

Objectives and Activities

The charity's purpose is to apply its funds for charitable purposes in accordance with its governing document and the wishes of the late Brian Blinco.

The trustees have regard to the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit when carrying out the charity's activities and administering its funds.

Activities and Achievements

This was the charity's first reporting period.

During the period, the charity was registered with the Charity Commission, and the trustees undertook the initial administration and establishment of the charity. The trustees continued to progress matters relating to the estate of the late Brian Blinco and the implementation of the charity's objectives.

No charitable grants or distributions were made during the reporting period.

Financial Review

This is the charity's first accounting period.

No investment income or other income was received during the period ended 31 December 2025. Although funds were subsequently transferred from the estate and invested, this did not occur until 1 July 2026 and therefore there was no investment activity during the reporting period.

The trustees continue to oversee the administration of the charity and its assets with a view to fulfilling the charity's charitable purposes.

Reserves Policy

The trustees review the charity's financial position on an ongoing basis and seek to maintain sufficient reserves to meet future charitable commitments and administration expenses.

Plans for Future Periods

The trustees intend to continue managing the charity's assets prudently and to apply its funds in accordance with its charitable objectives. Following the transfer and investment of funds from the estate on 1 July 2026, the trustees will monitor investment performance and consider future charitable distributions.

Trustee Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom accounting requirements.
