MISSION HUMANITY

TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

Reporting period: 25 October 2024 – 30 October 2025

Charity Registration Number: 1210672

1. Introduction

The trustees of Mission Humanity are pleased to present this Annual Report for the financial period ending 30 October 2025.

Mission Humanity is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO) established to support the prevention and relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing grants to charities or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

During the reporting period, the charity remained in its initial development stage. No charitable projects or grant-making activities were undertaken during this period. The trustees nevertheless remain committed to establishing a sound foundation for the organisation and preparing for future charitable work.

2. Charity's Objectives

As set out in the charity's constitution, its object is:

The prevention or relief of poverty anywhere in the world by providing grants to charities or other organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

The trustees intend to pursue this object by identifying suitable charitable organisations, developing partnerships and supporting initiatives that make a meaningful difference to individuals and communities experiencing poverty.

3. Activities During the Year

During the financial year, Mission Humanity did not undertake direct charitable activities, distribute grants or deliver charitable projects.

The trustees acknowledge that progress in establishing the charity's operational activities was limited during this period. The charity was at an early stage of development, and the trustees recognise the importance of putting appropriate arrangements in place so that future activities can be properly planned, managed and monitored.

The trustees remained committed to the charity's purposes throughout the year.

4. Financial Review

The Charity Commission Annual Return 2025 records the following financial information for the reporting period:

The charity had limited financial activity during the reporting period. No grants were distributed and no expenditure on charitable projects was recorded, according to the information reported in the Annual Return.

The trustees will oversee the charity's finances responsibly and ensure that funds are applied solely in furtherance of its charitable purposes.

5. Governance and Management

Mission Humanity operates as a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO), governed by its constitution dated 24 October 2024.

The trustees are responsible for overseeing the charity's activities, financial management, governance and strategic direction. They are required to act in the charity's best interests and ensure that decisions are made in accordance with its constitution and applicable charity law.

The Charity Commission Annual Return records that no trustees were paid during the reporting period.

6. Plans for the Coming Year

The trustees recognise that the charity needs to move forward from its initial development stage and work towards delivering meaningful charitable activities. Subject to the availability of resources and appropriate due diligence, the trustees intend to focus on the following priorities:

1. Develop charitable activities: Identify opportunities to support people and communities experiencing poverty, in accordance with the charity's objects.

2. Build partnerships: Establish relationships with reputable charities and organisations working to prevent or relieve poverty.

3. Fundraising and financial development: Explore appropriate fundraising opportunities and encourage donations to support the charity's future work.

4. Explore grant-making opportunities: Identify suitable organisations that could benefit from financial assistance and develop a fair process for assessing and awarding grants.

5. Strengthen governance: Develop and review appropriate policies and procedures, including financial controls, safeguarding, risk management and conflicts of interest.

6. Raise awareness: Improve the charity's public profile and communicate its objectives to potential supporters, donors and partners.

The trustees hope these steps will help Mission Humanity become more active and effective in achieving its charitable objectives.

7. Risk Management

The trustees recognise the importance of identifying and managing risks associated with the charity's activities. As the charity develops, the trustees intend to review its financial, operational and governance arrangements to ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place.

Particular attention will be given to the responsible management of charitable funds, the selection of suitable partner organisations and compliance with relevant charity regulations.

8. Future Outlook

Although the reporting period was relatively quiet in terms of charitable activities, the trustees remain positive about the future of Mission Humanity.

The trustees are committed to developing the organisation gradually and responsibly, ensuring that it has appropriate arrangements and resources to deliver meaningful charitable work. The long-term ambition is to contribute towards reducing poverty and supporting vulnerable communities through partnerships and grant-making.

9. Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for managing the affairs of the charity and ensuring that its resources are applied solely towards its charitable purposes. They are also responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, preparing annual reports and accounts, and ensuring that the charity meets its legal and regulatory obligations.
