GOSPEL OF GOD CHURCH 1932 WOLVERHAMPTON

TRUSTEES' ANNUAL REPORT

YEAR ENDED 31 DECEMBER 2025

Advancing the Christian religion for the benefit of the public through worship, teaching, pastoral care and community outreach.

Aim and purposes

Gospel Of God Church 1932 Wolverhampton is a Charitable Incorporated Organisation (CIO). Its charitable object is the advancement of the Christian religion for the benefit of the public. The constitution identifies activities including prayer meetings, lectures, public celebration of religious festivals, producing and/or distributing literature on the Christian faith, pastoral care and outreach work in the community.

Objectives and activities

The Church seeks to further its charitable object through Christian worship, prayer, teaching and community-facing ministry. In line with its constitution, the CIO may undertake activities that support its charitable purpose and may acquire property, employ staff where necessary, and manage or invest funds appropriately for the furtherance of its objects.

- Prayer meetings and Christian worship.
- Lectures and teaching about the Christian faith.
- Public celebration of religious festivals.
- Producing and/or distributing Christian literature.
- Pastoral care.
- Outreach work in the community.

Volunteers

We would like to thank all the volunteers who make our church community possible through their generous commitment of time, skills and service.

Financial review

For the year ended 31 December 2025, total receipts were £9,428.29 and total payments were £9,405.19, giving an excess of receipts over payments of £23.10. The bank balance at 31 December 2025 was £23.10. The charity did not have a bank account from January to March 2025 and there were no cash records for that period. The available bank statements cover financial activity from April to December 2025.

Reserves policy

The trustees' policy is to carry forward any funds remaining at the end of the financial year into the next financial period, to support the ongoing activities and charitable purposes of the Church. At 31 December 2025, the charity held reserves of £23.10.

Structure, governance and management

Gospel Of God Church 1932 Wolverhampton is constituted as an association-model Charitable Incorporated Organisation with voting members other than its charity trustees. The principal office is in England. The constitution was last amended on 6 February 2025.

The charity trustees manage the affairs of the CIO and may exercise their powers for that purpose. Each trustee is required to act in good faith in the way they consider most likely to further the purposes of the CIO and to exercise reasonable care and skill. The constitution provides for a minimum of three and a maximum of twelve charity trustees.

Trustee decisions may be taken at trustee meetings or by written or electronic resolution as provided by the constitution. Trustees may delegate powers or functions to committees subject to the constitutional requirements. The constitution also contains provisions addressing conflicts of interest and conflicts of loyalty.

Membership and general meetings

Membership is open in accordance with the eligibility and admission provisions in the constitution. The CIO must hold an annual general meeting. The AGM receives the annual statement of accounts and trustees' annual report and elects trustees as required by the constitution.

Trustees

The constitution records the first charity trustees as:

- Fortune Sibanda
- Magreth Seka
- Derek Machangara

Trustee changes after the year end
