Trustees' Report

1. As trustees, we are pleased to present our first report and the financial statements for the period from 01 January 2025 to 31 December 2025. We are most grateful to Almighty and Most Compassionate God who enabled us to serve the community through Jame-ul-Uloom Multan, Pakistan. We could not have done without the help of our volunteers and staff and we pray to God to reward them and shower His blessings on them and their families. Jazakuum Allah khair for donations from all of you during this period. Alhamdulillah (the praise and thanks be to God). Trustees who served during the year and up to the date of this report are listed earlier in this document.

2. Overview

3. Services and Charitable Activities

The charity continued to advance its charitable objectives through the provision of religious and community services for the benefit of the public.

During the reporting period, the charity:

- Continued to support JUM.

The trustees believe these activities provide significant public benefit by preventing and releiving poverty through education, and providing educational and character building services that benefit residents of Multan and neighbouring areas and other parts of Pakistan including Baluchistan.

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

Jame ul Uloom Multan is the main project of the charity. With 13 branches across Multan, it is a well-established educational and character-building institution for educating young boys and girls so that they achieve and develop

- deep insight into Noble Qur'an and the sunnah of the Beloved and Blessed Prophet Muhammed (peace be on him and his family and companions);
- strong character and the ability and strength to call for the unity of the Muslim community; and
- good understanding of the modern challenges and the ability to guide the Muslim Ummah through these challenges.

To achieve these objectives, students are provided comprehensive education in Islamic sciences as well as modern subjects. More importantly, teachers try to be role models for the moral and personal development of the students.

Campus: The area of the campus is 26 canals & 5 marlas that has 17 classrooms, a library, a mosque, 2 hostels and playgrounds etc. Our departments are:

- Islamic Studies, Modern Sciences (middle standard to degree (BS) programmes), Hifz and Tajweed
- BS., M.Phil and PhD. Programmes.
- Education for female students: Hifz and Ayesha Public School: Nursery to matriculation level.

Some highlights of the work of Jame-ul-Uloom Multan, Pakistan:

- Number of our students achieving success in the exam board of madaris: 148
- Number of our students passing FA and Matric exams of secondary school and intermediate education boards: 58
- Number of students completing Hifz: 20 and Tajweed: 8
- Total number of students (Female and male): 1105 (400 boarding, 55 from Balochistan, 49 orphans).
- Halal Food Certification: 11 participants
- IT certificates completed by 30 students
- Mphil: Currently 8 students.
- PhD: Currently 8 students.

4. Payments to Other Charities

Except, Jame-ul-Uloom Multan (JUM), the charity did not make any grants or donations to any other charitable organisations during the reporting period.

Expenditure incurred by the charity related solely to the furtherance of its own charitable objectives, including teachers' salaries, food, clothing and other costs for 400 children living in hostels provided, managed and maintained by JUM, property-related costs, fundraising activities, and administrative expenses.

5. Plans for the Coming Year

The trustees have identified the following priorities for the forthcoming year:

- Continue supporting JUM.

6. Other Matters

The trustees would like to record their sincere appreciation to all volunteers, donors, local mosques, community leaders, and supporters who have contributed their time, skills, and financial support towards the running JUM that serves people in Multan and other parts of Pakistan including Baluchistan.

The trustees remain committed to ensuring that the charity's resources are managed responsibly and applied exclusively towards achieving its charitable objectives and delivering long-term benefit to deserving people who face poverty.

We again express our utmost gratitude to our Most Compassionate God for all His blessings and for giving us the opportunity to serve this charity. We pray to Him to accept our small service to His creation and JUM and the community and reward us with His grace and bounty.
