For the period from 01st January 2025 to 31st December 2025

Charity name: Hall administered in connection with The National Young Life Campaign, Bedford Branch

Charity registration number: 235325

Objectives and Activities

National Young Life Campaign's purpose is teaching and promoting Christian teaching of young people in the Bedford area through a wide variety of activities.

The Hall trust holds and administers funds in relation to historic premises, now sold, and invests these funds for future use for the National Young Life's, Bedford Branch

Achievements and Performance

During the year the charity has sought to invest funds carefully & monitors the performance of those investments. Thereby to enable sufficient funds to be available should the Bedford branch of the national Young Life Campaign wish to purchase premises in future, or use to further the aims of the organisation to teach and promote Christian teaching of young people in the Bedford area

Financial Review

The charity's principal source of funds is growth from investments on monies received from a property that the trust once owned.

The Hall fund investments have seen fluctuations; however it has steadily increased through the year, and the fund continues to perform well, with a growth of £35,347 income. There was no expenditure during this year.

The trust seeks to maintain the fund at such a level to enable the Bedford branch of the National Young Life Campaign to purchase a property in future should they wish to do so, having agreed a policy to hold £300,000, and releasing surplus funds should needs arise for the local or National work.

Structure, Governance and Management

The charity is governed by a trust deed dated 15th April 1964 and the area the charity can operate in is set out in this governing document. It is run by five trustees, all volunteers, who have knowledge of and concern for the local branch of National Young Life in Bedford. The trustees meet annually, and call additional meetings as and when required.

Independent examiner's report on the accounts

Section A Independent Examiner's Report

Report to the trustees	Hall administered in connection with the National Young Life Campaign, Bedford Branch
On accounts for the year ended	2025	Charity no (if any)	235325
Set out on pages	1-5 (remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2025

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

~~[The charity's gross income exceeded £250,000 and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of [insert name of applicable listed body]].~~ Delete [ ] if not applicable.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination (~~other than that disclosed below~~ *) which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
