Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of the Gorsuch Langley and Prynce Charity, Registered Number 247233

I report on the Accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2025

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts. The Charity's Trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year (under Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the 1993 Act) and that an Independent Examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:-

* examine the Accounts (under Section 43(3)(a) of the 1993 Act;
* follow procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners (under Section 43(7)(b) of the 1993 Act; and
* state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention

(1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements
   * to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the 1993 Act; and
   * to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the 1993 Act

   have not been met; or

(2) to which, in my opinion, attention should have been drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

This Charity is an amalgamation of three originally separate charities. The new scheme was approved on 26th June 2000. The object of the charity is to help those in need in the parishes of the Holy Cross (the Abbey) and St Giles in Shrewsbury.

The Trustees usually meet on eleven occasions during the year, but this may vary. The usual arrangement is that quarterly meetings discuss policy, finance and administration and grants, with monthly meetings in between to consider grants only. No meeting is held in August. When necessary, decisions on grants may be made between the Chair and Secretary, with Trustees ratifying them later. Consideration, with communication with Trustees of both the Miss M F Hewitt Trust and The Burke Bequest, took place in November to decide on Christmas gifts, which were distributed in December. These grants were set again at £100 for an individual, £150 for a couple, and £200 for a family.

During the year, 22 households within the charity's area of benefit were given financial assistance; 91 households received Christmas cash gifts (with some overlap) totalling £18,300 and 6 students received educational grants. Grants were also given to primary schools within the charity's area of benefit, to help fund residential school trips for many low income families. The Charity promotes its activities in the area, and liaises with local schools and agencies such as Social Services, the Citizens Advice Bureau, the Community Mental Health Trust, Housing Support Officers, and other organisations whose contact with individuals and families lead to appropriate referrals.

The Chair of the Charity has approved this report.
