Respective responsibilities of the trustees & examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the the audit requirements of Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (The Act) does not apply.

It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under Section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the account records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items and disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination no matter has come to my attention:-

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

   (a) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the Act: and

   (b) to prepare Accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act.

   have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
