Report and Accounts

For the year ended 31 December 2025

Company No: 1555038
Registered Charity No: 282538

REPORT OF THE CHAIRMAN 2025

The Festival Management Committee believe that WF2025, our 58th Anniversary, was, yet again, a fine achievement. There was a large range of excellent events, The financial outcome was a deficit of £861, and after adjustments of £1,629 from previous years this led to a surplus of £768 and increased our General Fund from £40,729 to £41,497.

I was very pleased to receive grants from Wooburn Parish Council, the Louis Baylis Charitable Trust, the Shanly Foundation, and regular generous private supporters. The Festival could not survive without their generosity.

Good audiences attended many events, especially the Opera and the Jazz Supper. The 'Literary Week' was rather short this year, but we were lucky to have two talks, firstly, 'Nordic Spirit, Ibsen, Grieg and Munch by Dr. Anne Anderson and secondly 'Jane Austin's 250th Anniversary' by Roger Askew. We had two successful tours of Dorney Court. We also hosted a new event, a Summer Garden Concert with the Fitzroy Quartet and some of their pupils.

The Heath String Quartet returned by popular request, to perform at our second Chamber Concert at St. Paul's church, playing works by Schumann, Bacewicz and Beethoven.

The first chamber concert was given by Braimah Kanneh Mason and Plinio Fernandes. The last concert was given by ConnaughtBrass.

The Opera this year was Donizetti's Lucia di Lammermoor which was fully costumed and `staged' around the cafe tables by members of Barefoot Opera. The evening was a sell out!

The Visual Arts Exhibition was as ever particularly well presented and managed, with the result that a high level of sales was maintained. This was particularly impressive as most other exhibitions have suffered significant falls in sales. The featured artist were Peter and Gill . I am very grateful to the members of the Visual Arts committee, for their hard work and imagination and I would like to thank Mary Perkins and the Committee for their efforts.

The Jazz Supper was as enjoyable as ever, with the appearance of Vimala Rowe and her quintet who performed a programme 'For the love of Ella', yet another sell-out evening.

The Festival Film returned with Payal Kapadia's 'All we imagine as light', which was as usual introduced by Quentin Falk.

The Lunchtime Concerts were performed in All Saints Church, High Wycombe and as always provided high quality and free entertainment, and I am pleased to report that audiences were again much improved. These lunchtime recitals give young artists a platform at the beginning of their careers.

The Wooburn Singers once again arranged their 'Come and Sing Day' when a Choral work is rehearsed by enthusiastic choral singers under the direction of Jonathon Cole Swinard and focused on Leonard Bernstein's 'Chichester Psalms. The Wooburn Singers Choral Concert, again under the direction of Jonathon Cole Swinard, performed Bach's Magnificat and Mozart's Mass in C minor.

The Wooburn Festival could not exist without our patrons, friends and sponsors and we are extremely grateful for their continuing support. Robin & Patricia Saxby have, as usual, been particularly generous. Also, some individuals gave generous donations anonymously.

Again, I thank my Committee Members for their industry during the year, the organisers of the Visual Arts Exhibition, and the many other helpers who arrive at Festival time. I am also very grateful for the support and advice that various Council Members give. Our thanks go to Mr. P Wheeler for examining the accounts for us.

Our purpose is to serve our audiences and the local community, and we thank them for their continuing and loyal support, and we shall look forward to seeing them in 2026!

Finally, I want to say that we will be happy to welcome new and enthusiastic members to the Committee, especially someone to take on the role of Treasurer.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES

The Directors and Trustees have pleasure in presenting their report with the independently examined accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2025.

ACTIVITIES
The Company is a registered charity and is engaged in advancing the education of the public in the arts.

RESULTS
The net outgoing resources for the year amounted to £861 which were deducted from general reserves. There are no restricted funds.

RISK REVIEW
The directors regularly review all financial and operational risks, which may impact on the Charity. Procedures are adopted to mitigate perceived risks and these are subject to regular review to ensure that there are adequate safeguards in place.

RESERVES AND INVESTMENT POLICY
The directors consider from time to time as to whether the reserves are adequate to mount the Festival each year, and consider that adequate reserves are essential to enable the Festival to continue. The present reserves amount to approximately 145% of expenditure for the year 2025.

REVIEW OF THE ACTIVITIES OF THE CHARITY
A review of the activities of the Charity is given in the Chairman's report attached to these financial statements.

COUNCIL
New Council Members:
The board propose election of Gill Lowy and James Perkins as Directors and Trustees, who will hold office in accordance with the Festival's Articles of Association.

Existing Council Members
The following directors, who are also trustees, have held office since:-

Under rules 37 and 38 annually one third of council members who have been longest in office since their last election or appointment shall retire. Hence Brian Johnson and John Payne are due to retire from office by rotation, and being eligible Brian Johnson and John Payne offer themselves for re-election.

DIRECTORS AND TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

Company Law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit and loss of the company for that period. In preparing those financial statements the directors and trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors and trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

GENERAL

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies' Act 2006 relating to small companies.

BY ORDER OF THE COUNCIL

CLAIRE MITCHELL 19th July 2026

Secretary

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2025, which are attached:

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts' you consider that the audit requirement of section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of an unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

   - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 41 of the Act; and
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and to comply with the accounting requirements of the Act

   have not been met; or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
