Statement of Committee's Responsibilities

The management of the day-to-day affairs of the Hall is entrusted to the Committee. The Committee is also responsible for the preparation of the financial statements. The rules require financial statements to be prepared for each financial year which give a true and fair view of its income and expenditure for the year then ended and of the disposition of the funds at the end of the year. These statements must be made available to the members.

In preparing these statements the committee will have due regard to:-

- a) selecting suitable accounting policies and applying them consistently
- b) making judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- c) preparing the statements on a going concern basis

The Committee is also responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Hall and for safeguarding its assets.

Accountant's report to the Committee of Congresbury Memorial Hall

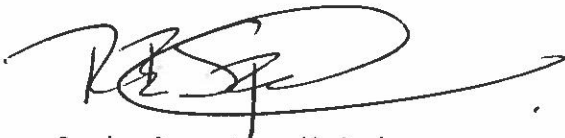

We have examined, without carrying out an audit, the attached financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out therein.

Basis of Opinion

Our examination consisted of comparing the financial statements with the accounting records and making such limited enquiries of the Officers of the Hall as we considered necessary for the purpose of this report.

Opinion

In our opinion the financial statements are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the Hall, and have been drawn up in a manner consistent with acceptable accounting requirements and comply with the Statement of Recommended Practice, "Accounting and Reporting by Charities".
