Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

The making of financial grants for educational purposes to qualifying persons and organisations, as defined by the governing charitable scheme.

The issue of grants for educational purposes to beneficiaries and organisations qualifying under the charitable scheme. In that respect, grants have for example been made for computers, laptops, books, travel expenses, school uniform, organised school trips and expenses related to college, university or apprenticeships.

The trustees declare that in the running of the Charity they have regard to the need to follow the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects (include within this section the statutory declaration that trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit)

You may choose to include further statements, where relevant, about:

- policy on grant making.
- policy programme related investment.
- contribution made by volunteers.

Section D

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

Clingan's Trust has been established since 1736. It is at present governed by the charitable scheme sealed on the 15th March 1996.

In its financial year ended December 2023, grants in excess of £95,000 were made to individuals, schools and organisations. This was an increase on the previous year of £29,000.

The trustees endeavour to support young people locally in helping them to realise their educational ambitions and potential, and to assist them in their career choices. In that respect, grants have been made for a variety of educational purposes including the provision of books, computers, educational material, organised school trips, university and college expenses and help with apprenticeships.

The Trust has a long-standing reputation within the trust area for helping young people in education and especially those from poorer backgrounds. It has a reputation for enhancing the lives and prospects of young people.

Section E

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Charity has large capital reserves. The trustees seek to use all available income whenever possible.

The trustees have regard to maintaining proper reserves of income for future needs. In particular, so as to ensure the reserves are sufficient to meet the running costs of the Charity.

At the end of 2023 the Charity's reserves were as follows:-

- 1) Lloyds Bank - £88,449 (income)
- 2) Portfolio managed by Charles Stanley - £948,068 (capital)

Details of any funds materially in deficit

The charity does not carry any deficit.

Further financial review details (Optional information)

You may choose to include additional information, where relevant about:

- the charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising).
- how expenditure has supported the key objectives of the charity.
- investment policy and objectives including any ethical investment policy adopted.

Responsibilities and basis of report

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of the above charity ("the Trust") for the year ended 31/12/2023.

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ("the Act").

I report in respect of my examination of the Trust's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination, I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent
examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination which gives me cause to believe that in, any material respect:

- the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 130 of the Charities Act; or
- the accounts did not accord with the accounting records; or
- the accounts did not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair' view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
