The Trustee's Annual Report for the year to 30 June 2022

The National Leathersellers' College comprises a group of educational trusts registered with the Charity Commission (No. 312780) for the benefit of students at the Institute for Creative Leather Technologies ('ICLT') at the University of Northampton. The College's objects are to provide technical education and research in connection with the Leather Industry.

The Charity's registered address is 7 St Helen's Place London EC3A 6AB.

The trustee is The Leathersellers' Company acting through its Court of Assistants. The members of the Court are listed on page 2.

Income is provided from permanent endowments, held in the form of investments in COIF Charities Investment Fund ("COIF"), M & G Charifund ("Charifund"), and from cash deposits.

During the year the Trust made payments to beneficiaries totalling £20,000 for the support of students at the Institute for Creative Leather Technologies, University of Northampton.

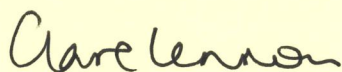

When setting the objectives and planning the work of the charity for the year, the trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit.

Statement of trustee's responsibilities

The Trustee is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the accounts comply with the Charities Act 2011, the applicable Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations and the provisions of the Charity's trust deed. The Trustee is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In accordance with Section 133 of the Charities Act 2011, as the Trust's gross income does not exceed £250,000, the trustee has elected to prepare a receipts and payments account and a statement of assets and liabilities as its annual statement of accounts.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEE OF THE NATIONAL LEATHERSELLERS' COLLEGE

Opinion

We have audited the account and statement of The National Leathersellers' College (the 'charity') for the year ended 30 June 2022 which comprise the receipts and payments account, the statement of assets and liabilities and the notes to the account and statement, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and the receipts and payments basis.

In our opinion, the account and statement:

- ◆ properly present the receipts and payments of the charity for the year ended 30 June 2022 and its assets and liabilities as at the end of that year;
- ◆ adequately distinguish any material special trust or other fund of the charity other than an unrestricted fund; and
- ◆ have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the account and statement section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the account and statement in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Other information

The Trustee is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Trustee's annual report and accounts other than the account and statement and our auditor's report thereon. Our opinion on the account and statement does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the account and statement, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the account and statement or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether there is a material misstatement in the account and statement or a material misstatement of the other information. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Charities Act 2011 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- ◆ sufficient accounting records have not been kept; or
- ◆ the account and statement are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- ◆ we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of Trustee

As explained more fully in the statement of Trustee's responsibilities, the Trustee is responsible for the preparation of the account and statement and for such internal control as the Trustee determines is necessary to enable the preparation of an account and statement that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the account and statement

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the account and statement as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this account and statement.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

- ◆ assessing the design effectiveness of key controls in place over the accounting system with regard to their ability to prevent and detect fraud and verifying their implementation; and
- ◆ making enquiries of management and the Trustee of relevant laws and regulations which could result in a material misstatement in the financial statements and reviewing minutes for indications of non-compliance.

As a result of our procedures, we did not identify any key audit matters relating to irregularities.

There are inherent limitations in our audit procedures described above. The more removed that laws and regulations are from financial transactions, the less likely it is that we would become aware of non-compliance. Auditing standards also limit the audit procedures required to identify non-compliance with laws and regulations to enquiry of the Trustee and other management and the inspection of regulatory and legal correspondence, if any.

Material misstatements that arise due to fraud can be harder to detect than those that arise from error as they may involve deliberate concealment or collusion.
