Structure, Governance and Management Governing Body

Trustees

The structure of the charity consists of three trustees.

The Board of Trustees is authorised to appoint new trustees to fill vacancies arising through resignation or death of an existing trustee.

Trustee Induction and Training

Most trustees on appointment are already familiar with the practical work of the charity. Newly appointed trustee receive necessary tuition from existing trustees and are given access to Charity Commission publications.

Investment Powers

The trustees are authorised to make and hold investments using general funds of the charity.

Public Benefit

The trustees confirm that they have referred to the guidance contained in the charity commission's general guidance on public benefit and in particular to its supplementary public benefit guidance on advancing education when reviewing the charity's aims and objectives and in planning future activities.

Constitution, objects and policies

The Charitable Trust is constituted by trust deed and its objects are to promote and support any charitable activity.

Its policies are to further the observance of orthodox Judaism, to encourage and support the advancement of Orthodox Jewish Religious Education, to establish all institutions required by an orthodox Jewish community and any other charitable activity.

Development, activities and achievement

The trustees consider that the performance of the charity during this year has been satisfactory.

Funds available are sufficient to permit the Trust to continue in operation in the medium term.

The trust does not employ any voluntary staff.

Reserves

The trustees' policy is to distribute most of its income but leaving a cash balance at their discretion to fund unexpected demands and appeals.

Financial Review

The trusts total income was £116,425. After £32,200 was distributed to charities and administrative expenditure £720 there was a surplus for the year of £83,505. Funds are available to allow the trust to continue in operation.

Future Developments

There are no further projects contemplated at present.

Risks

The trustees do not feel that the charity is exposed to any major risks.

Statement of Trustees' responsibility

The trustees are required under the Charities Act 2011 to prepare financial statements for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees should follow best practice and:

- (a) select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- (b) make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- (c) state whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- (d) prepare financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ascertain the financial position of the charity and which enable that the financial statements comply with applicable law and regulations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approval

The report was approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf on 5 February 2024.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES

I report to the trustees of Avir Charitable Trust on the accounts for year ended 5 April 2023 set out on pages 6-9.

RESPECTIVE RESPONSIBILITIES OF TRUSTEES AND EXAMINER

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 144(2) of the Charities Act 2011 (the 2011 Act) and that an independent examination is needed.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 145 of the 2011 Act;
- To follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145 (5)(b) of the 2011 Act; and
- To state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

BASIS OF INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and the seeking of explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a "true and fair view" and the report is limited to those matters set out in the statement below.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S STATEMENT

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention.

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirement:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 130 of the 2011 Act and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the requirements of the 2011 Act.have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
