Report of the Trustees
For The Year Ended 31 March 2023

The trustees who are also directors of the charity for the purposes of the Companies Act 2006, present their report with the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2023. The trustees have adopted the provisions of Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019).

OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

Objectives and aims

The charity's purpose, as set out in the objects contained in the company's Memorandum of Association, is the furtherance of medical science in the field of Gastroenterology. To further its aims the activities of the company have continued to relate to the administration of funds generated by Prof. Karna Dev Bardhan O.B.E and funds generated from investments, and the use of these funds to fund medical and scientific research projects and to pay grants to fund medical research in the field of Gastroenterology. There have been no material changes in policies since the last report.

Details of the main activities undertaken in relation to the charity's purpose are included in further detail in Achievements and Performance below.

The trustees have referred to the guidance contained in the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing aims and objectives and in planning future activities.

ACHIEVEMENT AND PERFORMANCE

Charitable activities

Research Projects

During the Financial Year 2022/23, BRET, in addition to existing projects, agreed to provide funds for team building expenses within Prof. Sanders' Gastroenterology team at the Hallamshire Hospital and for a consultancy exercise into patients' views on endoscopy.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Investment powers

The company's investment powers are set out in its Memorandum of Association. These allow the company to invest monies not immediately required in such investments as may be thought fit, subject to conditions as may be imposed or required by law. The company's investments are managed by Rathbone Investment Management.

Reserves policy

The total funds (which are entirely unrestricted reserves) at 31 March 2023 were £1,791,406. The trustees acknowledge the high level of reserves. However, the trustees are aware that the research income funds previously generated by Prof. Karna Dev Bardhan O.B.E. have ceased and that the current high level of reserves will be eroded. The trustees therefore believe that the current level of reserves is justified in order to meet the charity's anticipated future commitments.

The financial results for the year are set out in the statement of financial activities.

FUTURE PLANS

The vision for BRET: South Yorkshire Gastroenterology continues to be a global centre of excellence, producing high quality research and delivering superior clinical outcomes in the local community. The influence of BRET has already resulted in a sustained National and International research platform for Gastroenterology in South Yorkshire. This type of platform attracts and builds high calibre Consultants, who in turn have the potential to generate high quality research alongside service delivery. Furthermore, there is a significant body of evidence to suggest that such research initiatives directly impact positively on clinical outcomes for patients and the surrounding community (Downing A et al Gut 2017). BRET wishes to continue and build upon this legacy by:-

Sponsoring Fellowships - Using funds to support MD or PhD study.

Freeing up consultant time for research - By creating research dedicated NHS consultant sessions.

Sponsoring conferences and communities of practice - e.g. Hosting The Sheffield GI symposium.

Further investment with the University of Sheffield to pump prime academic appointments.

STRUCTURE, GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT

Governing document

The company is registered as a company limited by guarantee, without a share capital. Its governing instrument is its Memorandum and Articles of Association.

Recruitment and appointment of new trustees

The trustees are appointed by the members of the company. At the next annual general meeting Lucy Vernal and Dr Laurence O'Toole retire by rotation. They will both offer themselves for re-election.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES' RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees (who are also the directors of Bardhan Research and Education Trust of Rotherham for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Bardhan Research and Education Trust of
Rotherham

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by order of the board of trustees on 14/11/2023 and signed on its behalf by:

D R Cockburn - Trustee

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees of Bardhan Research and Education Trust of

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Bardhan Research and Education Trust of Rotherham (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 31 March 2023 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 31 March 2023 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the financial statements and our Report of the Independent Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Report of the Trustees is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements; or
- the charitable company has not kept adequate accounting records; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees of Bardhan Research and Education Trust of
Rotherham

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

We have been appointed as auditors under Section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with the Act and relevant regulations made or having effect thereunder.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is detailed below:

- Enquiry of management around actual and potential litigation and claims and fraud;
- Reviewing minutes of meetings of those charged with governance;
- Reviewing financial statement disclosures to assess compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- Performing audit work over the risk of management override of controls, including review of cashbook transactions and other adjustments for appropriateness and evaluating the business rationale of any significant transactions outside the normal course of business.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulation. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk is also greater regarding irregularities occurring due to fraud rather than error, as fraud involves intentional concealment, forgery, collusion, omission or misrepresentation.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.
