ISLAMIC CENTRE NOTTINGHAM

Report of the trustees for the year ended 31st December 2022

The trustees present their report and financial statements for the year ended 31st December 2022.

Status

Islamic Centre Nottingham was incorporated on 6th December 1976. It was registered with the Charity Commission on 30th January 1978.

Constitution and Appointment of trustees

There shall be no less than five and no more than sixteen members of the council of trustees. Future trustees shall be appointed by a resolution of the trustees passed at a special meeting called under clause 6 of the Articles of Association. Membership of the Centre shall be confined to those who are Muslim by faith and no person who is not a member of the Centre shall be eligible to hold office as a member of the council.

Trustees responsibilities for the financial statements

The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for the each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and the incoming resources and application of resources, including the net income or expenditure, for the year. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- 1- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- 2- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- 3- State whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements; and
- 4- Prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Charity and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for the taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of the fraud and other irregularities.

Principal objectives

The principal objective of the Charity is the promotion of the Islamic religion.

Review of activities and future developments

Continued support from the members of the Centre and the Muslim community of Nottingham has enabled us to further build up sufficient funds to repay the loan taken for the construction works and future developments

We would like to inform the members that their has been approval by the trustees to amend the priority of the completion of the roof with an additional dome to be constructed in to the roof plan but before completion of this, priority has been given to install five storey thirteen person lift for disabled access due to the greater demand of disabled male and female members to have disable access to the upper floors. We can confirm that with continued the support of the members and general Muslim community of Nottingham and UK that the five storey lift project has now been fully completed. Trustees happy to report that greater priority has now been given to complete the roof with new dome and administration block.

Trustees are happy to report that Continued approval has been given for greater emphasis in getting the female community to be involved and taking more responsibilities and Ensuring female members become board of trustees as further facilities provided for them.

The trustees would like to express their thanks for the continued support shown by the members of the Centre and local community.

This trustees report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part XV of the companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Approved by the board of Trustees and signed on its behalf by 12th September 2023

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF ISLAMIC CENTRE NOTTINGHAM

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of Islamic Centre Nottingham ('the Company')

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act')

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the Company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of my examination of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011 ('the 2011 Act'). In carrying out my examination, I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Subject to the limitations upon the scope of my work in connection with my examination, I can confirm that:

1) In accordance with Regulation 31 of The Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008, (The Regulations) the accounts of this incorporated charity are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006;

2) This is a report in respect of an examination carried out under Section 145 of the Act and in accordance with any directions given by the Commission under subsection (5)(b) of that section which are applicable; and that, no matter has come to my attention in connection with my examination which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

(i) to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and;
(ii) to prepare financial statements which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of Section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and;
(iii) that the financial statements be prepared in accordance with the methods and principles set out in the Statement of Recommended Practice - Accounting and Reporting by Charities have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in my report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
