Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom General Accepted Accounting Practice).

The law applicable to charities in England and Wales, the Charities Act 2011, Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provisions of the trust deed requires the trustees to prepare financial statements to each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charity for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and to enable them to ensure that the financial statement comply with the Charities Act 2011, the Charity (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and the provision of the trust deed. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Objectives and activities

The charity is a Sikh temple providing general day to day religious and social services to the community including community meals (langar) during services. The services include birthday celebrations, marriage celebrations including legal registrations and funerals, teaching of Punjabi and music including Gurbani kirtan, day shelter for all. Community Service: Providing essential services like free meals (Langar) and shelter for the homeless, alongside food banks and support for vulnerable individuals and families. The Charity is a NON -Profitable Sikh Gurudwara, and our Mission is propagation, practice and advancement of Sikh religion based on teachings of our ten Gurus and Siri Guru Granth Sahib Ji The Eternal Guru and sacred scriptures of the Sikhs.

Cultural Preservation: Organizing events, exhibitions, and workshops to educate about Sikh traditions, history, music, and language, fostering pride and intercultural understanding.

Religious Education: Offering classes and seminars on Sikh scripture, philosophy, and ethics, empowering individuals to live by Sikh principles.

Achievements and performance of the trust

The Charity has continued to provide its wide range of spiritual and religious philosophy services to the community. The range of services include the advancement of the Sikh religion through propagation, practice of Sikh Dharam based on teachings of our Ten Guru's and Siri Guru Granth Sahib Ji 'The Eternal Guru' - sacred scriptures of Sikhs.

Bebe Nanaki Gurdwarra provides a wide range of activities for the community (Sangat) by performing religious functions such as prayers, Gurburabs, Amrit Sanchar, Akhand Paths, Kirtan Darbars, civil and religious wedding services, and funeral services. In accordance with the Sikh religion, Bebe Nanaki Gurdwarra provides a learning hub constituting of educational classes, musical classes training, Panjabi languages, Gurbani Santhiya, Health Awareness, promoting Seva (Selfless Services) as well as promoting equal opportunities for our women to ensure fairness and inclusion.

We have undertaken significant work to renovate and improve the including cleaning and repair of the estates. In 2023 one of the Charity houses was fully refurbished and put on rent. The Gurudwara Guband (Dome) was fully cleaned and repainted to a very high standard. New coin operated barrier system was installed and new remote control operated Gate was installed in the Gurudwara car park giving our Sangat a safe environment. Langar community kitchen a Free vegetarian meal is provided to all devotees and visitors irrespective of faith, caste, creed and the Gurudwara enjoys 5 Star rating by the Food Standards Agency.

Free vegetarian meals from the Guru's Kitchen (Langar) are provided to all devotees, community members irrespective of their faith, caste, gender etc. The Trust Board have a vision to uplift humanity through practice of Sikh faith values within the context of shared responsibility, selflessness, love, forgiveness, and compassion. Fundraising of the charity remains the receipt of voluntary donations and receipt of donations from religious functions and gatherings at the Gurdwarra. All the above would not be possible without the blessings of the almighty Siri Guru Granth Sahib Ji Maharaj and spiritual guidance of our late founder Chairperson Bibi Balwant Kaur Ji MBE and continuing support and dedication of our committee, voluntary Sevadaars and congregation.

The Trust Board/Management is planning to renovate/refurbish the houses belonging to the trust in the foreseeable future to ensure we can continue with our educational and recreational classes as described earlier which were disrupted during the Covid-19 pandemic, this is a high priority for the Trust Board and Management team. There are also plans for the Gurdwarra to continue its renovation project for the front facade, this remains a high priority.

The Charity plans to continue its activities as outlined above in the forthcoming years, making certain we continuously evolve and improve in our services.

Financial review

These financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 have been prepared in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Accepted Accounting Practice). The financial statements are prepared under the historic cost convention. The income for the year was £270,845 which was an increase compared to the previous year of £249,094. Management, administration and other expenses for the year amounted to £208,971 compared to the previous year of £167,698.

Conclusion from the Trustees

The Trustees extend heartfelt gratitude to all members of the sangat and volunteers who continue to give their time and service in the name of the Almighty.

Our daily Ardas (prayer) remains for the wellbeing and blessings of all who contribute to the Gurdwara's mission.

Independent Auditor's Report to the Members of
BEBE NANKI CHARITABLE TRUST

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of BEBE NANKI CHARITABLE TRUST (the "charity") for the year ended 31 December 2023 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities (including Income and Expenditure Account), Statement of Financial Position and the related notes, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice), including FRS 102 "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland".

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charity's affairs as at 31 December 2023 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charity in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions Relating to Going Concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the charity's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least 12 months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the trustees with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other Information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The trustees are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on Which We Are Required to Report by Exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Trustees' Report is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements; or
- sufficient accounting records have not been kept; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records or returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of Trustees

As explained more fully in the Trustees' Responsibilities Statement set out on page 1, the trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charity or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

to the Members of
BEBE NANKI CHARITABLE TRUST

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

We have been appointed as auditors under Section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and report in accordance with the Act and relevant regulations made or having effect thereunder.

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditor that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud.

The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud, is detailed below. However, the primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with the trustees of the trust

- Enquiring with management and others to gain an understanding of the trust including activities, financial reporting and known fraud or error;
- Evaluating and understanding the internal control system;
- Performing analytical procedures as expected or unexpected variances in account balances or classes of transactions appear;
- Identification of Laws and regulations that are of significance in the context of the charity. The key laws and regulations we considered in this context included Charities Act 2011, The Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 and guidance issued by the Charities Commission for England and Wales.
- Evaluated the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the Trustees. Conclude on the appropriateness of the Trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Charity's ability to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluated the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation (i.e. gives a true and fair view).
- In addressing the risk of fraud through override of controls, testing the appropriateness of journal entries and other adjustments, assessing whether the judgements made in making accounting estimates are indicative of a potential bias, and evaluating the rationale of any significant transactions that are unusual or outside the normal course of the trust's activities.

Because of the inherent limitations of an audit, there is a risk that we will not detect all irregularities, including those leading to a material misstatement in the financial statements or non-compliance with regulations. This risk increases the more that compliance with a law or regulation is removed from the events and transactions reflected in the financial statements, as we will be less likely to become aware of instances of non-compliance. The risk is also greater regarding irregularities occurring due to fraud rather than error, as fraud involves intentional concealment, forgery, collusion, omission or misrepresentation.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use Of Our Report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters that we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

BEBE NANKI CHARITABLE TRUST
Notes to the Financial Statements

1. General Information

BEBE NANKI CHARITABLE TRUST is an unincorporated charity registered with the Charity Commission, registered charity number 508859. The principal address is 189 Rookery Road, Handsworth, Birmingham, B21 9PX.

2. Accounting Policies

2.1. Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements of the charity, which is a public benefit entity under FRS 102, have been prepared in accordance with the Charities SORP (FRS 102) 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (effective 1 January 2019)', Financial Reporting Standard 102 'The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland' and the Charities Act 2011. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention. The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional and presentation currency of the trust.

2.2. Going concern basis of accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the assumption that the charity is able to continue as a going concern, which the trustees consider appropriate having regard to the current level of unrestricted reserves. There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue as a going concern.

2.3. Income

Cash donations are recognised on receipt. Other donations are recognised once the charity has been notified of the donation, unless performance conditions require deferral of the amount. Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under gift aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation.

Legacies are recognised on receipt or otherwise if the charity has been notified of an impending distribution, the amount is known, and receipt is expected. If the amount is known, the legacy is treated as a contingent asset.

Interest income is accrued when it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the entity and the amount of income can be measured reliably. Rental income is recognised on a straight-line basis over the lease term within income from investments.

2.4. Expenditure

Liabilities are recognised as expenditure as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charity to that expenditure, it is probable that a transfer of economic benefits will be required in settlement and the amount of the obligation can be measured reliably. Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been classified under headings that aggregate all costs related to the category. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular headings, they have been allocated to activities on a basis consistent with the use of resources.

2.5. Tangible fixed assets

Depreciation is provided at the following annual rates in order to write off each asset over its estimated useful life.

The useful life of the assets is as below:

Freehold properties - upto 100 years

Fixtures and Fittings - upto 5 years

2.6. Cash and Cash equivalents

Cash and Cash equivalents include cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities.

2.6. Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds can be used in accordance with the charitable objectives at the discretion of the trustees.

Restricted funds can only be used for particular restricted purposes within the objects of the charity. Restrictions arise when specified by the donor or when funds are raised for particular restricted purposes.

Further explanation of the nature and purpose of each fund is included in the notes to the financial statements.

2.7. Interest Expenses

Interest expense is typically recognized as an expense in the statement of financial activities when it accrues.

2. Critical accounting estimates and judgement

In the application of the charity's accounting policies, the trustees are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amount of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised where the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods where the revision affects both current and future periods.
