To support regional and wider Sikh community by provision and maintenance of a Gurdwara for worship, celebration of important days within the Sikh religious calendar, family and kids' camps, and conduct ceremonies including baptism, weddings and funeral rites. All ceremonies take place in accordance with the Sikh religious observances and by any such other means the Management Committee shall think fit.
2. To work towards advancement of the Sikh Religion and in congregation therewith to acquire, equip, furnish and hold the property for use as a Gurdwara (Sikh Temple) and a community/social center.
3. To further the religious and charitable work of the congregation assembling to worship in the said Gurdwara (Sikh temple).
4. To provide, in the interest of social welfare, facilities for recreation, sport, leisure and education with the primary objective of improving conditions and well-being of, but not exclusively, the members of the Sikh community.

The trustees review the aims, objectives and activities of the charity each year. This report notes the achievements of the charity together with outcomes of the work in the reporting period. The report notes the success and benefits of each key activity towards the members of the congregation. The review also helps the trustees ensure the charity's aims, objectives and activities remained focused on its stated purposes.

Achievements and performance

The charity's main activities during the fiscal year are described below. All charitable activities focus on all members of the congregation and are undertaken to further the purpose of The Sikh Association Manchester.

Activities undertaken for public benefit in relation to objects

In planning and undertaking all activities, we have considered the Charity Commissions' guidance on public benefit and, the specific guidance on charities for the advancement of religion.

The Gurdwara is accessible and open to all members of the public every day. The free vegetarian kitchen (or langar) provides meals to everyone regardless of their age, gender, race, status or religion.

During the Covid-19 pandemic, normal religious services had to be halted, however, the kitchen facilities were being used by local members of the congregation to provide hot packed meals to the vulnerable population of greater Manchester irrespective of religion, gender, faith or status.

The Gurdwara had a few visits from schools and colleges of different faiths during this year. The primary objective of these visits as before, is to allow students to enhance their understanding of Sikhism and educate them on the basic principles of Sikhism. It also allows them to understand the various activities that take place at the Gurdwara. They are also offered langar as part of their visit to experience the basic principle of equality associated with Sikhism.

The Sikh Association Manchester has continued to maintain and improve upon the existing facilities at the Gurdwara. There is enough accommodation and facilities for use by visiting Priests and for members of the congregation in case they must stay overnight while helping with special programs and conducting religious duties

The equipment used to prepare langar in the kitchen has been serviced and relevant repair works have been undertaken to uphold the health and safety of volunteers who help in cooking.

The new heating system that was commissioned last year has been fully serviced twice to make the heating efficient and cost effective.

The overall religious program has been enhanced as per suggestions and feedback from the local members of the congregation. A varied selection of Kirtan performers (Sikh musicians) and scholars from Sikh centers in India and other parts of the world were invited throughout the year.

The dates of importance in the Sikh calendar were celebrated to mark Vaisakhi, birth anniversaries of our Gurus and other significant days.

Our religious education, Punjabi language and music classes have continued to grow. We now have multiple paid and voluntary teachers to maintain a reasonable student teacher ratio. All classes are operated at a beginner, intermediate and expert teaching level.

During the year the Association received donations income of £63,433 (2020:98,984) while expenditure in the year was £50,279 (2020: 78,809). Bank and cash balance at the yearend were £13,154 (2020: 19,371).

In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees should follow best practice and:

- Select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently
- Observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP
- Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- State whether applicable UK Accounting Standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records that disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act 2011. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.
