The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited
Report of the Committee of Management
For the Year Ended 31 March 2023

The Committee of Management of the Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited is pleased to present its annual report together with the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023, which are also prepared to meet the requirements for a directors' report and accounts for Companies Act purposes.

The reference and administrative information set out on page 1 forms part of this report.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 1 and comply with the charity's governing document, the Charities Act 2011, the Companies Act 2006, and Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Governing Document: Articles of Association

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited is a company limited by guarantee, having no share capital and is a registered charity. It has been governed for many years by its Memorandum and Articles incorporated on 18 April 1983. These 'Articles of Association' are available to The Charity Commissioners from the Festival Office if required.

Appointment of Members of the Committee of Management (the Trustees)

The Committee of Management is also the Board of Management. For the purposes of company law, the members of the Committee of Management are the Directors of the Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited and for the purposes of charity law are its trustees. Potential new members are identified by current Board members and executive staff taking account, where appropriate, of external advice and the requirement for specialist skills. New members invited on to the Board between Annual General Meetings only hold their post on a casual basis until their appointment is confirmed at the next AGM.

Observers from Arts Council England and Kirklees Council are also invited to attend meetings of the Board of Management.

Trustees Induction and Training

After selection, potential new trustees are invited to meet with the chair of the Board and Chief Executive prior to attending their first Board Meeting which is considered as probationary by both parties. If both the new member and the Board are satisfied, their appointment as trustee is confirmed in writing. They are given documentation relating to their responsibilities under company and charity law (including current SORP regulations) and copies of the Articles of Association and most recent Annual Report and Accounts.

Structure

The Articles of Association state that there should be a minimum of three members of the Board of Management (called Directors in the new Articles) but no upper limit is set. This has rarely been more than 15 and currently there is a membership of eight (see page 1 of the annual accounts for a list of members). The Board meets approximately quarterly and has the power to appoint the Artistic Director and Chief Executive.

The Chief Executive and Artistic Director roles are the responsibility of Mr Graham McKenzie. He has been in post since January 2006 and has delegated authority, regularly monitored by the Board of Management, for operational matters including artistic direction and content of the festival, finance, employment and associated activities.

Festival Partners and Supporters

Viability and sustainability remain robust through a range of key partnerships.

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited
Report of the Committee of Management
For the Year Ended 31 March 2023

University of Huddersfield

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival has had very close links with the Music Department of the University of Huddersfield since it began in 1978. Whilst retaining artistic independence, we continue to work in close co-operation with the University in a relationship which is seen as being of great mutual benefit, including the significant benefit of the in-kind provision of office space for the Festival team.

Arts Council England

There continues to be a close relationship with officers from Arts Council England (ACE). hcmf// is part of Arts Council England's National Portfolio Organisations (NPO) portfolio, a status which is confirmed until 2023. NPO status is a vital element of the future stability of hcmf//.

There is a formal, annual process of review and risk assessment by ACE, and both the Chief Executive & Artistic Director and the Chairman of the Board of Management take part in that process.

Kirklees Council

Kirklees Council invested a total of £41,000 in hcmf// in 2022-23, further demonstrating that the Festival remains a priority for them as a key cultural offer in the district.

PRS Foundation

PRS Foundation decided to end its programme of three-year funding cycles (which hcmf// had previously been a recipient of) in 2017 and instead established a Talent Development Fund with funds to be awarded annually. hcmf// has been awarded Talent Development Partner annually since 2018.

International Networks

The international profile of hcmf// continues to be strengthened by the Network of International Curators and Festivals (NICAF), of which hcmf// is a founder member, providing the Festival with a strong co-commissioning, co-producing, and international touring platform across Europe.

In 2019 hcmf// was awarded funding from the Creative Europe Programme of the European Union as a member of the large-scale cooperation project Sounds Now. Sounds Now is a network of nine European music festivals and cultural centres that promote contemporary music, experimental music and sound art, and are concerned with the way in which curation reproduces the same patterns of power and exclusion that are dominant at all levels of society. The Sounds Now project is the result of several years' collective discussion and reflection on our roles as curators working at an international level, and the socio-political responsibilities that this role carries with it.

hcmf// remains a member of the Europe Jazz Network (EJN).

Artistic Programme

In 2022, hcmf// produced our first full-scale 10-day festival since 2019, featuring a programme of live performances, talks, exhibitions, installations and workshops. As well as a concert programme featuring dozens of World and UK Premieres, we hosted The Oram Awards for the first time, celebrating innovation in sound by women and gender minority music creators, and produced a full day of hcmf// shorts, delivering 13 free concerts in venues across the town centre as part of our ongoing efforts to remove barriers to accessing cultural experiences.

Our 2022 programme was built around a focus on three of the most innovative and in-demand composers working in Europe today: Swedish composer Lisa Streich featured as hcmf// 2022 Composer in Residence, with perhaps the most comprehensive survey of her work to date; Lithuanian composer Justė Janulytė returned to the festival for the first time since 2010; and British composer Philip Venables presented UK premieres performed by lovemusic, Andreas Borregaard and Zubin Kanga.

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited
Report of the Committee of Management
For the Year Ended 31 March 2023

As well as representing the final year of our Swedish partnership (with STIM in collaboration with Stim Forward Fund, Export Music Sweden, Västra Götalandsregionen, the Swedish Composers Society (FST) and the Embassy of Sweden) and the first year of 3-year partnerships with Lithuania (with Lithuanian Culture Institute and Music Information Centre Lithuania) and Ireland (with Culture Ireland), hcmf// 2022's opening weekend marked our participation in Future Reimagined, the UK/Ukraine Season of Culture supported by British Council and the Ukrainian Institute. Roman Grygoriv and Illia Razumeiko's contemporary media-opera Chornobyl'dorf opened the festival, receiving critical acclaim, followed by a performance of UK Premieres by duo String Air Synthesis (Volodymyr Voyt and Solomiya Moroz), two works from Anna Korsun (performed by Riot Ensemble), and Maxim Shalygin's drop after drop, commissioned by Festivals for Compassion and performed by different ensembles (and at different festivals) around the world during 2022.

The final weekend of hcmf// 2022 was part of UK/Australia Season 2021-22 (a joint initiative by British Council and the Australian Government's Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade), with concerts by chamber ensemble Decibel, percussionist Eugene Ughetti and the Australian Art Orchestra (one featuring improvised solo performances from three members of the ensemble; and a presentation of Fresh Water – Salt Water, a bilateral collaboration between AAO and hcmf//) taking place alongside Polar Force – Array, an immersive installation created by Eugene Ughetti and Philip Samartzis.

In 2022:

- Ticketed events across the festival programme sold at an average of 80% capacity
- Box Office income increased by 23% compared to 2019 (our last edition of comparable length/format)
- 62% of the work we presented was created by women/gender minority artists, with 83% of events featuring women/gender minority music creators overall
- 50% of our programme was free to attend
- 60% of tickets were sold at discounted/concessionary rates
- Over 3000 people engaged with our year-round programme of free events

Learning & Participation

In 2022-23, we provided the following activities in order to increase participation opportunities amongst children, young people and other communities:

- A field recording workshop with Jo Kennedy as part of CoMA Festival 2022.
- A series of workshops at Crossley Fields School in Mirfield, delivered in collaboration with Sangam Festival as part of Our Biennale 2022.
- A two-day exploration of sound and visual arts, inspired by the hcmf// archives and including the opportunity to undertake an Arts Award qualification.
- A participatory workshop (for women and gender minority participants) focusing on relaxation through the art of Indian singing, led by Satnam Galsian.
- A workshop inviting participants to explore improvisational approaches and AI, led by Maria Sappho.
- 2 x tours of the British Music Collection at Heritage Quay (1 open to all / 1 for women and gender minority participants).
- 2 x Music at Play workshops for under 5s and their families.
- An experimental writing workshop with Chris Ruffoni as part of Huddersfield Literature Festival.

491 participants engaged with this programme of activity, with feedback including:

'Very high-quality workshop. Brilliant delivery, and very enjoyable experience.'

'Enjoyable, interesting and inspired me to learn more.'

'Very interesting and motivating. It covered practical aspects extremely well'.

'Really enjoyable, fun and informative.'

'This has been a wonderful experience and a life opportunity for my daughter which I greatly appreciate.'

'It has been a joy to watch [participant] work in such a stimulating environment. The staff were very welcoming, friendly and approachable.'

'Inspiring, accessible, multi layered, useful, friendly.'

'Beautiful workshop – can't wait to do more.'

'Really enjoyed it. Bang on.'

'I was really glad we went. My daughter rarely joins in with things and it was nice to see her getting involved.'

'I enjoyed it very much and felt inspired to work on deep breathing and singing.'

Opportunities

hcmf// provided approximately 190 paid opportunities for artists/practitioners in 2022-23.

In addition to this, hcmf// employs the following staff:

- 3 full-time and 2 part-time roles within the core team
- External production management company (TG Events)
- External marketing consultants (Bonner & Hindley)
- External press/PR support (Faith Wilson PR)
- External Front of House support during the festival

Marketing & PR

In 2022 hcmf// produced a brochure which was available in printed format as well as online:

<https://hcmf.co.uk/wp-content/uploads/hcmf-programme-2022.pdf>

Full programme details were listed on www.hcmf.co.uk, Creative Kirklees and Culture Host, and the 2022 Festival was also advertised in The Wire magazine and the Leeds International Film Festival programme.

During 2022:

- Facebook likes increased by 9%
- Facebook followers increased by 22%
- Twitter followers increased by 3%
- Instagram followers increased by 28%
- Press AVE was + £350K

In the lead up to and during the 2022 festival, our Twitter activity generated:

- 178K impressions
- 626 mentions
- 14.5K profile visits

hcmf// 2022 featured extensively in regional and national press, with the below examples typical of the coverage received:

'hcmf// has always been conscious of the town of Huddersfield... and every year it makes attempts to broaden its appeal. This year, tickets for under-30s were a heavily discounted £5; there were a host of free concerts on the Monday; a few free events were programmed, some for women and gender minority participants only; and there was a tour of Huddersfield University's archive, which is notable for having the largest collection of twentieth century British art music in the world.'

The Journal of Music

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited
Report of the Committee of Management
For the Year Ended 31 March 2023

'Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival sprang back into full ten-day mode for the first time since Covid with this shattering 'archaeological opera' [Chonobyldorf] from Ukraine [...] Rarely can so much determination, and presumably anger, have been channelled so devastatingly into a work of art. We must applaud the festival's initiative in scheduling the event, with sterling support from the British Council [...] Everyone should have the chance to experience it.'

Opera Magazine

'A modern Ukrainian masterpiece everyone needs to see...Written and directed by Roman Grygoriv and Illia Razumeiko and given its UK premiere at the Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival by a multitalented cast of their fellow Ukrainians, it comprises two hours of the most original and astonishing music-theatre I have ever seen.'

The Times

BBC Radio 3 were also in residence in Huddersfield throughout the festival, with two episodes of the New Music Show dedicated to hcmf// 2022 and broadcasts from the festival continuing into 2023

Risk Management

hcmf//s risk management policy was reviewed in 2022-23. hcmf// evaluates and carries out a risk assessment against all of its activities – financial and performance related – against a series of Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) which are agreed and reviewed annually with our core funders (Arts Council England and Kirklees Council).

Objectives & Activities

Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival (hcmf//) is Britain's leading festival of new music, acclaimed for the quality and breadth of its programmes; it is highly regarded nationally and internationally, and aims to bring together the very best composers and performers of contemporary music in a variety of genres.

The core aims and objectives of the Festival remain to provide life-changing and unique artistic experiences to as wide an audience as possible; to be an international platform for new music and related contemporary art forms in the UK; to enthuse existing audiences and draw in new ones through adventurous programming and diverse, informed presentation; to provide innovative creative opportunities for all; to reduce our environmental impact and make progress towards sustainability; and to be an ambitious, dynamic participant within our cultural community.

Public Benefit

We have referred to the Charity Commission's general guidance on public benefit when reviewing our aims and objectives and in planning our future activities. In particular, we regularly consider how planned activities will contribute to the aims and objectives that we have set. The Committee of Management is satisfied that Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival fully meets the Charity Commission's guidelines with regard to delivering public benefit.

Much of the work and many of the performers presented at hcmf// both now and in the past are rarely heard in live performance in the UK. In attempting to select the very best of the 'new', both in terms of the composition and interpretation of contemporary music, hcmf// is providing the public with a unique opportunity to see and hear the cutting edge of musical development from the UK and around the world. Such music is not usually viable in any conventional commercial setting at this stage of its development, so without such a high profile showcase we believe the ongoing development of the genre would be significantly inhibited in the UK. We do, however, make every attempt to make a programme that is not only artistically challenging and of the highest quality, but also one that will appeal to as wide a range of the public, both in terms of age and of cultural backgrounds, as is feasible. In addition, by giving younger artists and composers the opportunity to present their work as part of an internationally acclaimed festival, hcmf// has often been a major factor in the establishment of the careers of individuals and ensembles who have gone on to international recognition.

hcmf// embraces its role as an effective local trainer for the cultural and creative industries, providing week-long placements for high school/college students and a wide range of volunteering opportunities from stewarding and artist liaison to technical skills and event management. hcmf// has a demonstrable track record in recruiting young people locally – often to their first paid full-time post – who have an ambition to work within arts and cultural management. Interns and junior staff members have gone on to secure in demand posts with the Southbank Centre, Almeida Theatre, Cheltenham Festivals, Opera North, the BBC and Yorkshire Sculpture Park.

Financial Review

The Board of Management would like to acknowledge the debt of gratitude we owe to our funders/ partners, without whom the festival would not be possible. In 2022-23 they included:

Arts Council England
Kirklees Council
University of Huddersfield
British Council
RVW Trust
PRS Foundation
Ernst von Siemens Music Foundation
Culture Ireland
Music Information Centre Lithuania
Lithuanian Culture Institute
STIM in collaboration with Stim Forward Fund
Export Music Sweden
Västra Götalandsregionen
The Swedish Composers Society (FST)
The Embassy of Sweden
The Creative Europe Programme of the European Union
BBC Radio 3

Other groups who provided valued support include:

CeReNeM
Heritage Quay
Muso Publishing
HISS
TG Events Ltd
Evoke
Bates Mill
Lawrence Batley Theatre
The hcmf// Members

The Festival is particularly grateful to the Arts Council England for its major ongoing support both at a financial and strategic level.

The charity's total income in the year was £583,104 (2021/22: £470,985). Total resources expended in the year was £621,695 (2021/2022: £456,883).

There was a net deficit for the year on unrestricted activities of £70,184 and a surplus of £31,593 on restricted funds, leaving unrestricted reserves standing at £102,322 and restricted reserves standing at £38,205 at 31 March 2023.

Income from grants was £537,137 (compared to £444,045 in 2021/22), of which £316,073 was in unrestricted and £221,064 was in restricted funds. The direct cost of producing the contemporary music festival was £464,742 (compared to £343,070 in 2021/22). Income from the Learning & Participation programme was £4,620 (2021/22: £10,488) with expenditure of £17633 (2021/22: £9,896).

The Board and Executive staff have worked hard to maintain a stable budget in this financial year without compromising

The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited
Report of the Committee of Management
For the Year Ended 31 March 2023

the quality and artistic excellence of the festival, or risk to its market position and international reputation.

Reserves Policy

It is the policy of the Board of Management that reserves should achieve an amount equal to approximately three months' operational expenditure (no less than £50,000), in order to:

- Cover lags in funding flows
- Take account of the increasingly uncertain funding environment
- Mitigate the effect of unexplained failures or defaults in funding
- Provide a cushion for unforeseen contingencies

As at 31 March 2023 this policy has been met, as detailed in the Financial Review above.

COVID-19

Although our core funding (from Arts Council England, Kirklees Council and the University of Huddersfield) remains secure, the Trustees anticipate that COVID-19 may continue to have a negative impact on the charity's activities and income (earned and fundraised) in the coming year. Financial controls and management will ensure thorough oversight of any negative effects, with mitigating actions to be taken accordingly. The year-end reserve levels, as well as a prudent reserves policy and a designated fund which specifically provides for this eventuality, will ensure we continue to operate as a going concern.

Plans for the Future

The Artistic Director & Chief Executive, together with the management and administrative staff, have continued to make significant progress on artistic, organisational and financial fronts. The financial situation remains challenging in the current climate, however the charity remains in positive financial balance. We have continued to receive strong reinforcement of our various strategies through the commitment of our major funding partners – Arts Council England, The University of Huddersfield and Kirklees Council – despite the fact that all these organisations have themselves been going through difficult financial times.

hcmf// 2022's 10-day edition was hugely successful, particularly in the context of the challenges of COVID-19, and the Board remains committed to doing everything within its power to maintain this ambition and quality. Our Executive Team continues to seek new sources of funding and to find innovative ways of presenting the very best in contemporary music within budgetary constraints.

Our ongoing aims and objectives are to:

- Increase and diversify our audience base, and develop new audiences in line with our broader artistic remit
- Increase our income base from a variety of sources
- Present a festival that is fit for purpose
- Continue to build reserves
- Establish a more significant regional presence throughout the year
- Identify and work more proactively with new partners in the sector, within the UK and internationally
- Support and promote new talent in the genre
- Develop our Learning & Participation programme and increase our resources for learning activity
- Reduce our environmental impact and make progress towards sustainability

Inclusion and diversity remain a priority at all levels of the organisation, with the following areas having been identified as a particular focus in 2023-24:

- Gender equality
- Socioeconomic barriers to access

2023 marks the penultimate year of the Creative Europe-funded project Sounds Now (<https://www.sounds-now.eu/>), of which hcmf// is a founding member. The project, which launched on 1 December 2019, is the result of several years' collective discussion and reflection on our roles as curators dealing with the socio-political responsibilities that this role carries with it. Sounds Now is concerned with the way in which curation reproduces the same patterns of power and exclusion that are dominant at all levels of society and aims to actively stimulate intersectional diversity within our professional field – opening up the capacity and possibility for different experiences, conditions and perspectives to be defining forces in shaping the sonic art that reaches audiences today.

Fixed Assets

Acquisitions and disposals of fixed assets during the year are recorded in the notes forming part of the financial statements.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Committee of Management (who are also the directors of The Huddersfield Contemporary Music Festival Limited for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the annual report and financial statements in accordance with Applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102: The Financial Reporting standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the Committee of Management to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company as at the balance sheet date and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including income and expenditure, for the financial year. In preparing those financial statements, the Trustees should follow best practice and;

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently,
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent,
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements,
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue on that basis.

The Trustees are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records, which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

By order of the Committee of Management

Professor Michael Peake
20th November 2023

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts for the company for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees of the Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of the company are not required to be audited under Part 16 of the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, I report in respect of your charity's accounts as carried out under section 145 of the Charities Act 2011. In carrying out my examination I have followed the Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5) (b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

Since the Company's gross income exceeded £250,000 your examiner must be a member of a body listed in section 145 of the 2011 Act. I confirm that I am qualified to undertake the examination because I am a qualified member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales, which is one of the listed bodies.

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe:

- accounting records were not kept in respect of the company as required by section 386 of the '2006 Act; or
- the accounts do not accord with those records; or
- the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination: or
- the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities (applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)).

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Use of my report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body.

My work has been undertaken so that I might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an Independent Examiner's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my work, for this report, for the statements I have made, or for the opinions I have stated.

1 Accounting Policies

The principle accounting policies are summarised below. The accounting policies have been applied consistently in dealing with items considered material in relation to the financial statements.

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) - (Charities SORP (FRS 102)), the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) and the Companies Act 2006. Assets and liabilities are recognised at historical cost or transaction value unless otherwise stated in the relevant accounting policy note.

The Charity meets the definition of a public benefit entity as defined by FRS 102.

The financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis which assumes that current and future sources of funding and support will be adequate for the charitable company's needs.

The Trustees have considered the impact of Covid-19 as noted in the trustees report and have determined that the basis remains appropriate.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds comprise accumulated surpluses and deficits on general funds. They are available for use at the discretion of the Committee of Management in furtherance of the charitable objectives.

Designated funds comprise funds set aside by the Committee of Management out of unrestricted funds for specific future purposes or projects.

Restricted funds comprise monies raised for, and their use restricted to, a specific purpose, or donations subject to conditions imposed by the donor or through the terms of appeal.

Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of Financial Activities when the charitable company is legally entitled to the income, it is certain that the income will be received and the amount can be quantified with reasonable accuracy. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income.

Voluntary income is received by way of donations and is included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities. Bank interest receivable is fully accrued at the balance sheet date.

Incoming resources from charitable activities are received by way of grants, sponsorship and box office and other festival income, and are included in full in the Statement of Financial Activities. Incoming resources where entitlement is not conditional on the delivery of a specific performance by the charitable company are recognised when the charitable company becomes unconditionally entitled to the income.

Resources expended

Resources expended are recognised on an accruals basis when a liability is incurred, as soon as there is a legal or constructive obligation committing the charitable company to the expenditure. Expenditure includes any VAT, which cannot be recovered, and is reported as part of the expenditure to which it relates.

Charitable expenditure comprises those costs incurred by the charitable company in the delivery of its activities. It includes both costs that can be allocated directly to such activities and those costs of an indirect nature necessary to support them.

Governance costs include those costs primarily associated with meeting the constitutional and statutory requirements of the charitable company and include the auditors' remuneration and legal fees and costs linked to the charitable company's compliance with regulation and good practice.

All costs are allocated between the expenditure categories of the Statement of Financial Activities on a basis designed to reflect the use of the resource. Costs relating to a particular activity are allocated directly, others are apportioned on the basis of estimates of the proportion of time spent by staff on those activities.

Operating leases

Rentals payable under operating leases are charged to the Statement of Financial Activities as incurred over the term of the lease.

Pensions

The charity operates a stakeholder pension scheme for its employees.
The charity has no liability beyond making its contributions and paying across the deductions for the employee's contributions.

Tangible fixed assets

Tangible fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Tangible fixed assets are depreciated at rates calculated to write off the costs of each asset over its estimated useful life as follows:

Office Equipment	33% Straight line basis
------------------	-------------------------

Debtors

Debtors are recognised at the settlement amount due after any discount offered.

Cash at bank and in hand

Cash at bank and in hand includes cash and any short term highly liquid investments and deposit accounts.

Creditors and provisions

Creditors and provisions are recognised where the charity has a present obligation resulting from a past event that will probably result in the transfer of funds to a third party and the amount due to settle the obligation can be measured or estimated reliably. Creditors and provisions are normally recognised at their settlement amount after allowing for any discounts due.

Financial instruments

The charity has financial assets and liabilities of a kind that qualify as basic financial instruments. Basic financial instruments are initially recognised at transaction value and subsequently at their settlement value.

Artistic Programme Fund

In order for HCMF to deliver elements of the Festival programme, specific applications were submitted in the year ending 31 March 2023 to a number of trusts, foundations and overseas bodies.

Learning and Participation Fund

This fund represents monies received from several funders to enable hcmf to deliver a year round learning and participation programme.

Creative Europe (Sounds Now Project)

This fund represents funding received from the Creative Europe program of the European Union in relation to the delivery of the Sounds Now project. Centering on three pillars of diversity (gender/gender identity, ethnic and socio-economic background), Sounds Now aims to actively stimulate inclusion by focusing on the social and artistic role of the curator in contemporary classical music and sound art.

Organisational Resilience Fund

Established in 2021 to be drawn upon at the Trustees' discretion, in order to respond dynamically to changes in the environment in which the charity operates and secure its future sustainability. Funds were drawn in 2023.
