All staff and trustees are volunteers and do not take any financial reward, salary or expenses.

Our volunteers have the various skills and experience to teach the required activities. All are volunteers and do not take and financial rewards, salary or expenses.

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the year

The organisation had three teams; a Cadet, Junior and "A" class, which competed 'virtually', using recorded videos, in the national winter competitions run by Winterguard United Kingdom.

During lockdowns we were unable to meet and rehearse. We held virtual dance tuition classes with success.

In between lockdowns we were successful in recruiting some new members in our youngest Cadet and Junior groups.

We did not perform in any public performances due to the ongoing pandemic.

We were unable to fundraise at our normal galas and public performances, again due to the ongoing pandemic.

The building which is owned by the Anchormen is in good working order is used by other charities free of charge and some costs are supported by other units using the premises.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINERS' REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF ANCHORMEN DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of Anchormen Drum and Bugle Corps (the Trust) for the year ended 31st March 2021, which are set out on page 2.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the Trust you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trustee's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent Examiners' Statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- (1) accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- (2) the accounts do not accord with those records.
- (3) the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
