From 01/04/2023 To 31/03/2024

Charity name: University of the Third Age Leeds

Charity registration number: 518366

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The charity's object is the advancement of education, and, in particular, the education of older people and those who are retired from full-time work, by all means, including associated activities conducive to learning and personal development in Leeds and the surrounding areas.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	The charity is a mutual self-help organisation which holds fortnightly general meetings, open to all members, with invited speakers or occasional quiz and similar activities. Speaker topics are selected to inform and to entertain: these may be local history or local matters of interest, or life experience stories, but also new developments e.g. university PhD students explaining their research subjects The charity has over 49 Activity Groups for specific interests, variously covering arts and literature, music, languages, sports and fitness, et al. Alongside its educational aims U3A Leeds aims to promote the concepts of social interaction, social inclusion and wellbeing.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity	Para 1.18	The trustees are all aware of the Charity Commission's public benefit

Commission on public benefit		guidance and have reviewed the draft of this report in light of that guidance

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	The charity's ongoing success is demonstrated by its rising membership numbers, its increasing turnout at general meetings, its increasing number of activity groups, and the positive comments made to committee members by attendees at events. As a mutual self-help organisation, it provides life-long learning, recreational and social activities to people no longer in full-time work, usually retired. It enables people to get out of their homes and meet new people, make friends, and stretch

		their brains: helping combat loneliness and social isolation. The charity is careful to ensure that all public venues used have disabled access.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of
The University of the Third Age Leeds (Registered charity no 518366)

Accounts for the year ended 31 March 2024

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('the Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the charity's accounts carried out under section 145 of the Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the Charity Commission under section 145(5)(b) of the Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of the charity as required by section 130 of the Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the applicable requirements concerning the form and content of accounts set out in the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2008 other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination.

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
