TRUSTEES' REPORT FOR 2024

Throughout 2024 we have continued in our quest to help all cats and dogs in our area, particularly where those animals are in real need of food, shelter or veterinary treatment.

We have been finding an increase in cases where we are called upon in cases when elderly people are unable to care properly for their pets through infirmity or having to spend time in hospital or into long term care.

We have also had to make an extended appeal for cat fosterers as we have seen an extended kitten season greatly increased number of cats and kittens.

On that subject, the lack of neutering is a real problem with other cases of neglect and abuse.

During 2024 we have taken in 135 cats and have rehomed 130 of those.

Similarly, we have taken in 28 dogs, of which we have rehomed 24.

Our Accounts for the year 2024 are attached to this Report and whilst we are enormously grateful for the increase of funds, particularly as a result of two extremely generous bequests which have helped us to manage the increase of about £28,000 in our running costs

Once again this is my annual opportunity to thank everyone who helps us in ANY and EVERY way, particularly those who I don't get to meet on a regular basis, such as at our monthly Coffee Mornings at Alsager Civic.

ONCE MORE, THANK YOU ALL SO VERY MUCH !
