Glens Community Association
Report of The Management Committee

The Management Committee present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2025.

Principal activity and objectives

The Association is established to: relieve poverty, sickness and to promote the benefits of the inhabitants of The Glens, Limavady and district area of Co Londonderry and its environs without distinction of age, gender, race, political, religious or other opinion, by associating the statutory authorities, voluntary organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to advance education, and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or leisure-time occupation, with the object of improving the condition of life for the said inhabitants.

Management Committee

The members of the charity for the purposes of charity law and throughout this report are collectively referred to as the trustees.

The members serving during the year and since the year end were as follows:

Pauline McGonigal
Sean Harkin
Katheen Mullan

Public Benefit

The public will benefit from educational and recreational programmes and projects which we will provide for them. These programmes will promote health and well-being, mental health, educational which will help gain qualifications. Services from statutory agencies such as advice clinic on benefits, PSNI advice, housing advice, drug and alcohol services and we will provide a sign posting service for any public services available which the residents require. Fees are not charged for this service and none of the trustees obtains a private benefit. These benefits are demonstrated through attendance lists for all activities, evaluation forms from participants and photographic evidence to measure the success of each activity.

Risk Management

The members have assessed the major risks to which the association is exposed, in particular those related to the operations and finances of the association, and are satisfied that systems are in place to mitigate the exposure to the major risks.

Financial review

The financial performance is summarised in the enclosed accounts.

Plans for Future Periods

The association plans to continue the activities as outlined above in the forthcoming years subject to satisfactory funding arrangements.

Members Responsibilities In Relation To The Financial Statements

The members are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland requires the members to prepare financial statements that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity at the end of the financial year and of its surplus or deficit in the financial year. In doing so the members are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The members are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. The members are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner

A resolution will be proposed at the Annual General Meeting that McGroarty McCafferty & Company Ltd be re-appointed as accountants for the charity for the ensuing year.

By Order of the Management Committee:

Committee Member P. McGaughey

Independent Examiner's report to the charity committee members of The Glens Community Association

We report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025, which are set out on pages 5 - 10.

Respective responsibilities of charity committee members and examiner

As the charity's members you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under Section 65(9) (b) of the Charities Act;
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65 (9)(b) of the Charities Act.

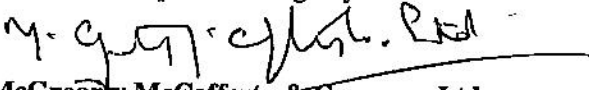

Our examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included considerations of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanation from you as charity members concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters 1 - 4 listed above and, in connection with the following Directions of the Charity Commission Northern Ireland; we have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
