

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31 MAY 2024

Constitution and Objects

The Governing Document for the Trust is its Constitution copies of which are available upon request. The Objects for which the Charity is established are:- Trillick Pipe Band is established for the provision and encouragement of the Culture and advancement of pipe band music common to the Ulster-Scots Clan within the Island of Ireland.

Governance

The number of Trustees is restricted to 4, this number is sufficient without amendment. The Trustees give priority to the Health & Safety of young people and have procedures in place for monitoring and reporting adverse events and for written reporting by designated professionals.

Main Activities Undertaken

Training of personnel.
Musical performances both indoor and outdoor to members of the general public
Attending lectures by members of the Ulster-Scots Agency and promoting the benefits obtainable from membership.

Achievements and performance

Never failing to attend contracted commitments in the course of the year.
Providing training and tuition to new members.
Providing transport on a voluntary basis to facilitate attendance of members at venues away from base.
Leading fancy dress performances within the locality.
Leading Church Parades for established Organisations.

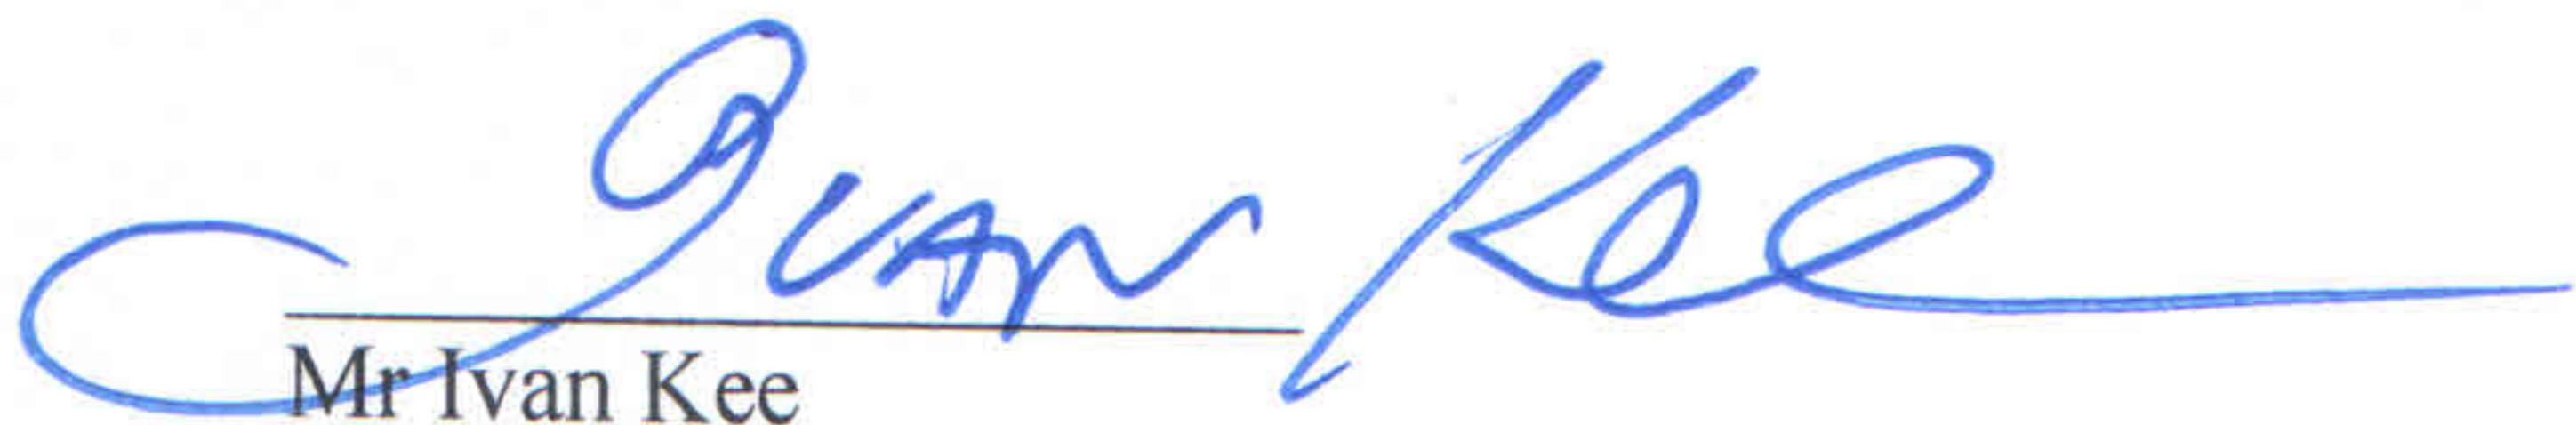

Review of Activities and Post year end Events

The main activities of the Trust are the provision and encouragement of the Culture and advancement of pipe band music common to the Ulster-Scots Clan within the Island of Ireland.
The deficit for the year and the manner in which it is dealt with are set out in the receipts and payment account. Payments for the period exceeded Income by £308. The deficit for the period of £308 will be transferred to the Reserve fund which now totals £72,666.

Trustees

The trustees of the Association at the 31 May 2024, each of whom were trustees for the whole of the period were:-
Mr James Faris
Mr Matthew James Ivan Kee
Mr Nigel Raymond Henderson
Mr Thomas Lendrum Coulter

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Mr Ivan Kee

Dated: 17th January 2025