

Belfast South Network Company

Independent Examiner's Report to the trustees of Belfast South Network Company

I report to the charity trustees on my examination of the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2022 which are set out on pages 11 to 21.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees of Belfast South Network Company (and also its directors for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006 ('the 2006 Act').

Having satisfied myself that the accounts of Belfast South Network Company are not required to be audited under the 2006 Act and are eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 ('the Charities Act')
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as the charity's trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. accounting records were not kept in respect of Belfast South Network Company as required by section 386 of the 2006 Act; or
2. the accounts do not accord with those records; or
3. the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the 2006 Act other than any requirement that the accounts give a 'true and fair view' which is not a matter considered as part of an independent examination; or
4. the accounts have not been prepared in accordance with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice for accounting and reporting by charities applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102).

Independent examiner's statement

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
