Objectives & Activities

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee provide for community development work within the local neighbourhood.

The Farmers Hall Management Committee are providing, maintaining and managing a rural Hall facility to ensure local community organisations have adequate, modern and sufficient facilities to meet the respective needs of each organisation to help ensure active community participation.

The Farmers Hall Management Committee also organise lectures, classes, meetings and community fundraising events and other forms of leisure-time and recreational and educational development.

The objectives are specifically restricted to the advancement of community development, the advancement of education, the relief of poverty, sickness and the aged and the promotion of the benefit of the inhabitants of the Bleary area and its environs in County Armagh, without distinction of age, gender, disability, sexual orientation, nationality, ethnic identity, political or religious opinion, by associating the statutory authorities, community and voluntary organisations and the inhabitants in a common effort to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure-time occupation, with the object of fostering a community spirit and improving the conditions of life for the benefit of the inhabitants and in particular to:

- a) The Provision, maintenance and management of a community educational resource hall facility for the use of the inhabitants for activities promoted or facilitated by the Company including use for meetings, lectures, classes and other forms of recreational and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants:
- b) to support community development, social inclusion and well-being activities and to work with partners to support and improve the conditions of the inhabitants in rural life;
- c) to promote or assist in the promotion, facilitation and organisation of community capacity building programme and projects for the benefit of the inhabitants within the area of benefit who have need of such assistance as a result of their youth, age, disability or infirmity, or social and economic circumstances, in a effort to increase the abilities, skills and self-confidence of such inhabitants; d) to advance any other exclusively charitable purpose as the Directors, may from time to time, decide in accordance with the law of charity.

Review of Operations and future development

The Trustees are content with the income generated by the existing Farmers Hall facility in the year to end December 2022. The effect of the Covid-19 pandemic outbreak in the previous two years- from March 2020 had been a disaster to hall usage and thus income.

However, The Farmers Hall Trustees now look favourably to the future and a return to similar levels of income as previous years from the ten hall user groups. The Farmers Hall Management Committee operate under a financial reserves policy.

Review of Finances

The Company income for the year to 31st December 2022 was £13,561 with private and government grants totalling £10,341 Other income generated amounted to £3,220.

Government and private grants were obtained from:

Armagh City Banbridge and Craigavon Borough Council FAP GRANT Community Development

Ulster Community Covid Recovery Fund

To all these funders, The Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee are most grateful.
